THE MIDWINTER HANDICAP

Third Annual Turns Eyes of Trap Shooting World Toward Pinehurst.

CLASSY and representative! There you have it; the distinctive features of the third annual Midwinter Handicap Trap Shooting Tournament in two words. As a natural consequence came high averages and keen competition which combined with perfection in management, five hundred and fifty dollars in added moneys, two splendid cups and

Preliminary; their respective scores, of ninety-four and ninety-three, the best recorded here and on par with the work of the expert visiting "missionaries."

The race for the high average medals was equally keen, Charles Nuchols of Charlotte, first, breaking 372 of the 400 targets shot at, or ninety-three per cent; J. E. Crayton, also of Charlotte, second with 371 or ninety-two and three fourths per cent, and W. F. Clarke of Boston, third in 363 or ninety and three fourths per cent. Mr. Crayton also led in the score for the eight hundred targets of the week, including the two hundred target sweeps of the opening and closing day, with 711, eighty-eight and seven eighths per cent; Dr. Culver second with 694 or eighty-six and three fourths per

Mr. Powel and Mr. Crayton bunched in a triple tie for third at ninety-one. Thursday morning's sweeps landed Mr. Crayton and Mr. Clarke at the head with scores of ninety-four, ninety-three; Dr. Culver and Mr. Owen tying for second in ninety-one each.

George Lyon set the pace for the professionals early in the game rounding out a phenomenal straight run of one hundred and eleven losing the gold medal offered for the best average in the final summing up to J. R. Taylor by the narrow margin of three targets; Mr. Taylor scoring three hundred and eighty-six or ninety-six and one half per cent, to three hundred and eighty three or ninety-five and three fourths percent, for Mr. Lyon. A single target away,

THE VILLAGE CLUB BAZAAR

Thursday, February Twenty-fourth, is Date Announced for Annual Event.

ANTICIPATED by the entire colony is the annual Bazaar of the Pinehurst Village Club, to be held this year Thursday, February 24, in The Carolina Music hall, practically everyone in the Village having some part in the work of preparation. As in the past the decorations will be a charming feature and in addition to the wealth of useful and two gold and two silver medals, made the contest one which turned the eyes of the entire trap shooting world toward Pinehurst, further establishing the contest in the place it now occupies among the few leading shoots of the year.

From all sections came amateur experts whose names are indelibly written in trap shooting annals—north, south, east and west—and with them as brilliant an array of professionals as one will find at the Grand American; the result from the opening report to the final echo, clean-cut and fast shooting; shooting which will hold its own, all things considered, with the best of records.

In the final summing up Dr. D. L. Culver of Jersey City, and R. M. Owen of New York, divided honors, the former winning the Handicap and the latter the cent, and Mr. Clarke third in 689 or eighty-six and one eighth per cent.

The consolation or closing event developed a miss and out race between Norwood Johnston of Pittsburg, and J. Cushing Todd of Newburyport, which the Pittsburger won with 174 to 173 for the Massachusetts gunner; Mr. Crayton third in 165, the event two hundred targets shot in ten twenty-target sweeps. In the opening days and a similar event, P. H. Powel of Newport, and Mr. Nuchols tied at one hundred and eighty-eight each; Mr. Crayton second in one hundred and eighty-six.

In Friday morning's hundred target sweep which preceded the handicap, Mr. Nuchols and John Philip Sousa were high guns in ninety-four and ninety-two; Dr. J. H. Dreher of Wilmington, in three hundred and eighty-two or ninety-five and one half per cent, was Lester German, with "the bunch" "running at sight." In the total for the eight hundred targets shot at Mr. German led with seven hundred and thirty-four or ninety-one and three fourths per cent, Mr. Lyon a hot second in seven hundred and thirty-three or ninety-one and five eighths per cent, and Mr. Taylor third in seven hundred and twenty-nine or ninety-one and one eighth per cent.

Dr. Culver's twenty-four in the first round of the handicap was equalled only by B. B. Ward of Aberdeen, S. D., and Mr. Clarke, his second ditto found only one equal and one better, H. T. Edwards straight, and with one target in the lead,
