ON MONDAY EVENING NEXT

General Invitation is extended for Carolina Bridge Party.

Prizes Donated by a Friend and Proceeds to be added to Village Club Bazaar Fund.

THE announcement of a Bridge party in The Carolina Music hall Monday evening, next, for which a general invitation is extended, is received with pleasure by the entire colony, for none of the season's less formal affairs are more generally enjoyed.

Special interest is attached to this event owing to the fact that handsome prizes have been very kindly donated by a friend of the Village club, and the proceeds are to be used to swell the Bazaar fund.

Play will begin promptly at 8:30 entrance fee fifty cents, payable at the desk.

Hunting at Fort Myers.

FORT MYERS, FLA., Jan. 26—Messrs S. Thurston Ballard, W. Christy Churchill, R. C. Ballard Thurston and Credo F. Harris of Louisville, Ky., guests at the Hotel Royal Palm, Fort Myers, Florida, with Dave Poole and Kennedy Carson as native guides, have just returned from a merry hunting trip and pronounce the shooting as excellent. The party spent five days about fifty miles out and took for their hunting ground the section around Rocky Lake. They succeeded in bagging twelve fine turkey and two deer and the game was indeed a credit to their ability. The party are anticipating many more pleasant trips and state that Fort Myers and vicinity afford every advantage for the sportsman.

"Billy" Barron in Bermuda.

The many acquaintances of Mr. W. A. Barron of the Barron, Merrill and Barron Company, owners of numerous White Mountain hotels, will learn with pleasure that he has assumed management of the Hamilton Hotel, Bermuda. Bermuda combines in one resort the attractions of fine roads, golf, tennis, cricket, base ball, bathing, fishing, boating, beauty of landscape and excellence of climate, with an ever attractive novelty in the form of a British army post.

Supper at the Gun Club.
