THE MIDWINTER HANDICAP.

he gradually drew ahead to the finish leaving Mr. Crayton, Harry Edwards, Mr. Ward and others, to fight it out for second place; his total the best of the day.

Mr. Owen started after the Preliminary cup at the first crack with a straight, W. D. Hinds of Portland, who made twenty-four, going out with a twenty-two on the second; the New Yorker maintaining his lead to the finish, undoubtedly the surprise of the week. For second and third place it was nip and tuck between Clarke, Lyon, Church and Ward with the balance of the field in the running until the last.

A fifteen on the seventh string cost Mr. Todd the consolation cup and an eighteen on the tenth would have tied with Mr. Johnston who fell to fifteen at a critical stage; his twenty in opening and nineteens on the fifth and sixth strings, being his salvation; the three best scores, made in the event, only two other nineteens and one twenty being recorded owing to conditions which reduced the scores several targets.

A single target at any stage of the game would have tied Crayton with Nuchols for the percentage medal, so close was the race.

The excellent work of the Handicap committee was generally commented upon and only words of enthusiastic praise were heard for Manager G. Dan Morgan who ran the program off like clock work.

As an entertainment feature the event was enjoyed by the entire colony, many women among those who followed the shooting.
