

MERRY OLD MAN IN THE MOON

one of the several doves which adorned it.

Appropriate to the occasion was the "hearts are trumps" figure in which partners were claimed by numbered red and white hearts, the same idea being carried out in the march in which partners were those wearing the same varicolored domino masks, no two of which were alike. Other favor figures included heart wands and feather wind mills, mirror fans and orders, gypsy bonnets and student caps, lorgnettes and spectacles.

Among the "stunts" the now familiar and popular ballet, in which men wearing short muslin skirts over their tuxedos show their idea of the terpsichorean art, proved the leader, but, alas, after dancing better than they knew, the group was "turned down" by the young women selected to judge them (Miss Sewall and Miss Fuller) and forced to dance together which they could not do, finally giving up trying and either dancing alone or taking out chairs for no one would even recognize them in their sad plight!

The Maypole number was the most picturesque of the figures, and skipping the rope, "Paul Jones" and a variety of marches, were all enjoyable and entertaining; a serpentine and confetti battle bringing the program to a close; general dancing rounding out the evening.

Mr. Paul E. Gardner of Chicago and Miss Ruby Sewall of Kansas City, and Mr. Spencer Waters of New York and Miss Harriet Horton of Williamsport, led. Others dancing were Mr. E. L. Scofield, Jr., of Stamford and Miss Priscilla Beall of Uniontown, Mr. Ralph N. Gardner of Chicago and Miss Carolyn Fuller of New York, Mr. W. S. Dillon of Fitchburg and Miss E. L. Rockwood of New York, Dr. W. S. Parker of Boston and Miss Ethel Check of New York, Mr. A. W. Nevens of Minneapolis and Miss Claire Lindsay of New York, Mr. E. S. Parmalee of New Haven and Miss Claire Renwick of New York, Mr. L. D. Pierce of Rochester, Vt., and Mrs. H. A. Harris of Chicago, Mr. R. B. Parker, Jr., of Providence and Miss Catherine Purdy of New York, Mr. H. L. Beardsley of Waterbury and Miss Mary Dunlap of Arlington, N. J., Mr. J. S. Linsley of Lenox and Miss Belle Conley of Brooklyn, Mr. Charles A. Mills of Pottstown and Miss Claire S. Humphrey of Englewood. Mr. H. S. Stearns, Jr., of New York and Miss Eleanor McCormick of Williamsport, Dr. Arthur H. Remington of Philadelphia and Miss Gertrude Lamb of Flushing, Mr. Vernon Lloyd of Pittsburg and Miss Katherine Lamb of Flushing, and Mr. H. V. Carrere of New York and Miss May Conley of Brooklyn, Mr. and Mrs. H. J. E. Thomas of Baltimore.

At the favor tables were Mrs. Leonard Tufts of Boston, Mrs. C. S. Horton of Williamsport, Mrs. L. Allan of Washington and Mrs. Herbert L. Jillson of Worcester.

The next cotillion will be held Feb. 22, a "Washington's birthday" party, and plans are already making to have it the most elaborate of the season.

Children's Party at the Berkshire.

The children of the Berkshire enjoyed an "everybody's birthday party" Thursday afternoon. An enormous birthday cake, beautifully decorated with icing and candles, was the centre of attraction, and a "Jack Horner Pie," filled with surprises, caused no end of fun. The favors were "fire-cracker" bon-bons.

Among the little ones who participated were Helene and Barbara Bixby, Elizabeth Cheatham, Rebecca Johnston, Gertrude Goodwin, Marion Schell, Esther Tufts and Eleanor Abbe, George Dunlap, Stoddard Nichols, Marshall James Kenneth and Ross Somerville, John Farrell, George Dodd, Albert and James Tufts, and John Cooper.

Putting Competition Today.

A putting competition for a prize contributed by Miss I. Linton will be enjoyed this afternoon by the Silver Foils.
