

WHITE DIAMOND

FLIES THE FURTHEST
WEARS THE LONGEST
PUTTS THE TRUEST
AND STAYS WHITE

MADE BY
WORTHINGTON
ELYRIA, O.

HOTEL TRAYMORE,

Atlantic City, N. J.

ALWAYS OPEN FOR THE RECEPTION OF GUESTS.
HOTEL TRAYMORE CO.

CHAS. O. MARQUETTE, Manager.

D. S. WHITE, President

The O-Te-Sa-Ga,

Otsego Lake, Cooperstown, N. Y.

THE
O-TE-SA-GA

Will be opened for the second season July 2, 1910. This hotel is one of the most popular of meeting places with the Automobile Tourists, the Golfers the Tennis Players, the Lovers of Motor Boating, and of all pleasures and pastimes enjoyed at the modern Summer Resort of to-day.

For full particulars apply to

J. D. Price (of Anderson and Price)

Mgr. Hotel Ormond,

Ormond Beach, Florida

until May 15, then Cooperstown, N. Y.

Associated Houses in New York City
Hotel Bretton Hall, Broadway and 86 St., (Subway Station)
Hotel Seymour 50 West 45th St., near Fifth Avenue.
Anderson and Price Co. Proprietors.

OTSEGO LAKE-COOPERSTOWN, N.Y.

PINEY WOODS INN

The Leading Hotel of Southern Pines, N. C.

CONSUMPTIVES RIGOROUSLY EXCLUDED

BOOKLET

J. M. Robinson, Owner and Manager

TWELVE HUNDRED DOLLARS

Annual Village Club Bazaar Nets Large
Sum for Charitable Fund.

Attractive Decorations Transform
Music Hall of Carolina and
"Everybody" Attends.

SO many beautiful things; oh dear!" exclaimed a young woman at the annual Village Club Bazaar which filled in Thursday afternoon and evening at The Carolina, and here you have the whole story of the event which is now anticipated by all from year to year, in a nut shell. "So many beautiful things"—useful, ornamental and artistic—representing a full year's work of preparation by a band of earnest, devoted women whose interest is doing so much good along comprehensive lines of practical charity. In addition, were decorations in keeping with the occasion and the season, a big crowd from every nook and corner of the Village; the net result over twelve hundred dollars added to the Village Club charitable fund.

In charge of the various booths were Mrs. J. D. C. Rumsey, Mrs. John Smithers, Mrs. J. P. Gardner, Mrs. W. E. Truesdell, Mrs. H. H. Cutler, Mrs. George F. Blake and Miss Bruce at the fancy work table; Mrs. H. W. Priest, Mrs. L. Allan and Mrs. Herbert L. Jillson at the baby table; Mrs. T. J. Check, Mrs. F. C. Johnson, Mrs. F. C. Abbe and Miss Cormerais at the domestic table; Mrs. Guy Metcalf, Mrs. F. A. King and Miss Gwendolyn Cummings at the neckwear table; Mrs. G. Dan Morgan, Misses Alice J. King, Molly Abbe and Alma Mackay at the flower booth; Mrs. Tyler L. Redfield at the "Jack Horner" grab pie; Misses Priscilla Beall, Carolyn, Dorothy and Lady Fuller, Ruby Sewall, Harriet Horton and Eleanor Fink at the confectionery booth; Miss Helen Child, Mrs. J. C. Spring, Mrs. B. Whittemore, Mrs. J. G. Splane at the cake table; Misses Mary Keller, Eleanor Stump, Dorothy Rosenmuller, Mary and Glendale Dunlap, Lucy Priest, Janette Baxter, and Ethel Check at the ice cream tables; and Mrs. C. S. Horton and Miss Eleanor McCormick at the punch bowl.

In the line of a side show novelty—Mme. Zera, the fortune teller, failing to appear—was the "Wild Man of Borneo" (Mr. H. S. Stearns, Jr.) carefully "guarded" and ably "managed" by Messrs. Ralph N. Gardner and H. H. Kirkpatrick. Chained in a grewsome cavern in one corner of the hall, the unfortunate creature was held captive, his hideous howls drowning the orchestra which played during the evening.

"He eats a quarter of beef four times a day," explained the keeper, armed with a broad-axe, "and he's losing flesh every week; yet it takes forty horse power chains to hold him.

"I'm sorry, madam, but you'll have to leave at once; the red plume on your hat is exciting him.

"No, my boy, he don't eat peanuts.

"Yessir, that's his natural howl; but he's exceedingly quiet tonight. You ought to hear him really howl once; but I daresn't let him.

"Have no fear, little Miss, he cannot escape and we shall transfer him to his cage as soon as the exhibition is over.

"No, Mr. Reporter, no free tickets tonight. This is for charity. Come and see us at the Hippodrome next week and it wont cost you a cent.

"Stop! Stop! Don't go nearer at your peril!"

And thus it went the evening through while the "barker" outside steered the crowd to the entrance and gathered in the dimes.

In strange contrast to the Bazaar itself it was, but the impersonation was excellent and it provided variety which amused the crowd.

All and all the Bazaar was the biggest success of the series and 1911 promises to be better yet for plans are even now being laid.

"IN THE AMEN CORNER."

Huntington Politicians Find Popular
Rendezvous at The Carolina.

Editor Outlook:

Huntington, N. Y., has distinguished representation at The Carolina in Mayor John E. Smithers, Comptroller J. T. Robb, Corporation Counsel S. A. Smith and Fire Chief W. E. Truesdell, and while Mayor Smithers denies that there is any "political significance" in the fact that so many of his followers are gathered here, it is nevertheless, surmised by those who are in a position to know, that the frequent private conferences which are being held by these gentlemen, mean that the "slate" for the Democratic ticket for the coming June election is being prepared. Mayor Smithers has made good during his first term and it is a foregone conclusion that he will be renominated.

The group all play golf and on Wednesday participated in a very interesting foursome over the number one course with the following result: Mayor Smithers, 142; Corporation Counsel Smith, 132; Fire Chief Truesdell, 129, and Comptroller Robb, 126.

As Mayor Smithers has only played the game for about ten years he, naturally, feels much encouraged over his score. It was, of course expected that the other gentlemen would put up a better game as they have been playing at least fifteen years and enjoy the fine course at Huntington as often as their official duties will permit.

Huntington is one of the few towns in New York state which went "dry" at the last election, and the residents feel that this was due to the work of the group mentioned who are enjoying their stay here and promising to return every year.

—VERITAS.

Moonlight Ride and Supper

Mrs. C. H. Matlage chaperoned a merry party of young people on a moonlight ride to Pinebluff, with supper at the Lift the Latch cabin Thursday, including Misses Machold, Ireland, Matlage, Rosenmuller and Messrs. Nevens, Bush, Feick, and Smith.