GOLF AT THE BERKSHIRE

Match Play Handicap Tournament Adds to Interest of the Week.

Rev. T. A. Cheatham, B. C. Bixby, Mr.
and Mrs. J. P. Williamson are Winners of Trophies.

WAS all golf at The Berkshire during the week owing to the progress of a special match play handicap in three divisions of eight each, two for men and one for women, the entire household following its progress either on the golf course or the big score sheet at the hotel.

In the first division final Rev. T. A. Cheatham of Salisbury, N. C., (7) defeated W. C. Micou of Brooklyn (13), four up and two to play. In the semi-final Mr. Cheatham, who had previously won a bye round, beat L. V. Hunt (6), two up, and Mr. Micou defeated W. W. Harless (7), two and one. In the first round J. C. Neff (19), beat L. V. Cock (12), five and three; Mr. Cheatham, J. P. Williamson (0), two up; Mr. Hunt, J. C. Clement (3), three and two; Mr. Micou, John Cullen (5), three up; Mr. Harless, J. W. Wilcox (2), one up.

B. C. Bixby of Newton (15), won the second division final from H. Adams of Brooklyn (10), four and three. In the semi-final Mr. Bixby won on a bye and Mr. Adams defeated C. R. Nalle (9), who advanced on a bye, one up in an extra hole match. In the first round Mr. Bixby defeated F. C. Abbe (5), four and three; C. D. Boynton (11), R. F. McBratney (8), one up; C. R. Somerville (0), C. E. Langdon (9), five up; Mr. Nalle, K. Somerville (7) three up; and H. Adams drew a bye, defeating Mr. Somerville, five up in a bye round.

Mrs. J. P. Williamson of Wilkesbarre (3), won the women's final from Miss Eleanor Stump of Baltimore (15), two up. In the semi-final Mrs. Williamson defeated Miss Emma I. Abbe (9), two up, and Miss Stump won from Miss Alice J. King (16) one up. In the first round Miss King defeated Mrs. W. W. Harless (5), by default; Miss Stump, Miss M. J. McLong (10), one up; Mrs. Williamson, Miss Molly Abbe (0), two up; and Miss Emma Abbe, Miss Linda Hunt (3), two up.

In qualification Mr. Williamson and Mr. Wilcox tied at forty-four each; Mr. Williamson winning the silver medal in a play-off.

The match play prizes were a desk set for Mr. Cheatham, a jewel case for Mr. Bixby and a gold pin for Mrs. Williamson.

BY THE LIGHT OF THE MOON

betting ring was enough to make even a "Pittsburger" turn emerald-eyed with envy!

Waltzes, two-steps, barn dances and Paul Jones changes combined with the figures to round out a merry evening, the program ending with the "Home, Sweet Home" waltz by moonlight, the music ceasing just as it sank from sight, enveloping the hall in darkness.

Mr. Paul E. Gardner and Miss Ruby Sewall, Mr. Spencer Waters and Miss Harriet Horton, Mr. E. S. Parmelee and Miss Priscilla Beall, and Mr. Ralph Gardner and Miss Carolyn Fuller led. Others dancing were Mr. H. S. Stearns, Jr., and Miss Connelly, Mr. S. A. Gilmore and Miss Lady Fuller, Col. J. E. Smith and Miss Weeks, Mr. L. H. Fitch and Miss Check, Mr. W. P. Nevens and Mrs. J. J. Kerr, Mr. H. K. G. Sherwood and Miss Renwick. The matrons were Mrs. James W. Tufts, Mrs. F. C. McNeil, Mrs. H. W. Priest, Mrs. J. P. Gardner, Mrs. F. N. Sewall, and Mrs. L. E. Beall. At the favor tables were Mrs. John C. Spring, Mrs. Leonard Tufts, Mrs. Herbert L. Jillson, and Miss Lucy K. Priest.

IT'S NEXT MONDAY NIGHT.

Annual Tin Whistle Ball Promises to be "Event of the Season."

The annual Tin whistle ball, a "fancy dress party", is scheduled for Monday evening next at The Carolina, and if indications point to anything it will in all truth, be the "event of the season".

The committee on decorations promise to transform the Music hall, the supper will be an excellent one and as for the costumes they promise much; eight prizes to be awarded by the judges.

The order of dances is unusually attractive, both in appearance and contents, and numerous square dances have been introduced to interest the older people. The grand march starts at nine; the doors open at eight forty-five.

MR. LINSLEY—MISS CONLEY.

Announcement of Their Marriage Received Early in the Week.

Announcement of the marriage of Miss Isabelle Margaret Conley of Brooklyn, to Mr. Joseph Smith Linsley of Lenox, were received by friends of "Mr. and Mrs. Linsley" early in the week.

The young couple have been guests at The Inn for several years past; in fact the courtship began here.

Supper at Pinebluff.

A jolly party of young people including Mrs. Alma J. Tarr, Miss Graydon, Miss Belden and Messrs. Voorhees, Nevens and Feick supped at the "Lift-the-Latch" Wednesday.

Another party included among others Mr. and Mrs. W. R. Simons and Mr. and Mrs. B. Heywood.
