THE BEST AID

TO A HIGH SCORE THE SMITH & WESSON

Single Shot Target Pistol

The S. & W. target pistol with automatic shell ejector, rebounding lock, and adjustable target sights, is the final triumph in the production of a thoroughly accurate target pistol. Its recommendation by the committee, and its wide use by experts are significant testimony to its high-score efficiency. The .22 long rifle cartridge gives the best results with this arm, but it is also bored for the regular S. & W. .32-10-88 and .35-16-146.

This monogram appears on all genuine Smith & Wessons.

G. H. CROCKER THE WINNER

Captures Club Championship Final from
C. L. Becker by Four and Three.

Henry C. Fownes Wins Qualification
Medal in Tie Play-off with J. D.
Foot-Big Field Participates.

MASSACHUSETTS divided honors in the final round of the annual Club Championship golf tournament, G. H. Crocker of the Alpine club, Fitchburg, and C. L. Becker of the Woodland club, Auburndale, meeting in the thirty-six hole round which Mr. Crocker won, four up and three to play.

At luncheon the Alpine player was four holes to the good, but the Woodland "war horse" started out at a fast clip and evened the match on the twenty-seventh green, with a par four. On the twenty-eighth tee, however, Mr. Becker broke his driver and the next four holes went to Mr. Crocker; the match ending on the thirty-first green.

In the semi-final Mr. Crocker defeated Col. J. E. Smith of the Wilmington Country club—who had previously put Allan Lard of Chevy Chase, twice United North and South champion, out of the running—three up and two to play. In the second round Henry C. Fownes of the Oakmont club, was the victim, five and four, and in the first, E. H. Silliman of Detroit, who lost seven down and five to play.

Mr. Becker defeated S. Y. Ramage of Oil City, three and two, in the semi-final, I. S. Robeson of Oak Hill, two and one in the second round, and S. D. Wyatt of Fon du Lac, three and two, in the first.

The fastest match of the week was the Smith-Lard contest, the cards seventy-five and seventy-seven. At the turn the score was even; the tenth and eleventh halved. Col. Smith won the twelfth, lost thirteenth, won the fourteenth and fifteenth and halved the sixteenth and seventeenth for the match. The cards:

COL. SMITH.

OUT—4 5 4 4 4 3 6 2 6—38
IN —4 5 4 5 4 3 4 3 5—37-75

MR. LARD.

OUT—5 5 4 4 4 3 5 5 3—38
IN —4 5 5 4 5 4 4 3 5—39-77

Mr. Crocker had Col. Smith four down at the turn in his match, but the Wilmington player took the next four holes to tie the score, Mr. Crocker winning the next three holes for the match.

Mr. Becker was two up on Mr. Ramage at the turn, but the Pennsylvanian evened the score on the eleventh only to drop back again on the next two holes; Mr. Becker halving the thirteenth, winning the fifteenth and halving the sixteenth for the match.

In qualification a tie resulted between Henry C. Fownes of Oakmont, and J. D. Foot of Apawamis, which the former won on the play-off.

In spite of the fact that the event was open only to season members and only one division provided for, nearly forty players participated.
