THE NEAR GOLFERS CLUB

An Exclusive Organization With Membership of Eight Congenials

Interesting visitors for the Advertising Golf tourney were the members of the "Near Golfers Club", organized in 1908 for golf and social purposes and its membership limited to an exclusive eight. Tournaments and dinners are held fortnightly during the summer with numerous informal dinners and annual dinners at Pinehurst and the Lotus Club. The name was chosen as a compromise resulting from failure to agree upon any other.

In Pursuit of the Golden Goat

The "horse play" of the Advertising tourney entered in the "get your goat contest," a series of putting matches for the possession of bronze "goat medals" of which each participant in the tournament was the proud possessor. Everybody was supposed to "butt in" and to play everybody else, the largest number of wins claiming a gold "goatherd medal." Through misunderstanding, however, one pair waged their entire possessions on a single match thus disarranging the order of things and leaving the gold medal without an owner.

Largo Exquisitely Rendered

Bach's Largo exquisitely rendered by Messrs. Munroe and Mallinson, added to the interest of the regular Sunday evening concert at The Carolina which was enjoyed by many of the Villagers. The program.

Mareh from the Suite	Lachner
Overture "The Barber of Seville"	Rossini
Largo from Concerto for two Violins	Bach
Messrs. Munroe and Mallinson
Ballet Egyptian	Luigini
Song for Cornet "The Erl-King"	Schubert

WINCHESTER

"BRUSH" SHELLS

Help Bird Shooters Make Big Bags.

Every one who shoots can't be a crack shot, but every one who hunts likes to make a good bag. You can materially increase your chances of doing so if you use Winchester "Brush" Shells for bird shooting. They are loaded so that, without the loss of velocity or penetration, they make a great big even pattern at the distances most birds are shot. Another desirable feature of Winchester "Brush" Shells is that, when used in a full choke gun, they make a cylinder bore pattern. This means that you can use your favorite trap or duck gun for field shooting without danger of blowing your birds to pieces. For a first barrel load in any gun they cannot be surpassed.

Loaded in "Leader" and "Repeater" Grades.
