Don't Close the Register

Look the hotel register over all you like, but as you value your reputation don't close it for it means "at least ten years of the worst sort of luck."

Another hotel superstition deals with the thirteenth year of the life of a hotel and sometime, hunt for room 13!

As a class, however, hotel men are not superstitious, but there is always the exception which proves the rule.

Golf Tourney for the Boys

The first of the boys' Golf tournaments for prizes contributed by George H. Crocker, I. S. Robeson and Herbert L. Jillson is booked for Saturday and Monday; thirty-six holes medal play with 2 prizes for gross and net scores. Masters Crocker, Robeson and Clay are the committee in charge.
