

THE HOLLY INN

PINEHURST, N. C.

The Holly Inn is one of the most attractive hotels in the South. Since it was built in 1895 it has been necessary to enlarge it several times to meet the constantly increasing demand. The interior is elegant, cheerful and tasteful. No modern convenience is lacking. There are many suites with private bath, steam heat in all rooms and open fireplaces in foyer and parlors. Music is furnished for concerts and dancing and the Holly Inn ball-room is one of its attractions. The cuisine and service excel. White girls from the North are employed as waitresses. The Holly Inn offers an attractive home to pleasure seekers from November to May.

PINEHURST LIVES IN OPEN

St. Valentine's Golf Tourney and other Sports Round Out Full Week

Every Train Brings Arrivals Many of Whom Will Linger Through Month of April

THE week has been one of midseason activity, attention centered upon the St. Valentine's golf tournament; tennis, shooting, fox hunting and other diversions by no means forgotten. Socially, teas, luncheons, dinners and bridge have rounded out perfect days, plans making for much to enliven the coming weeks, among them the annual St. Valentine's Cotillion at The Carolina and the usual tableaux or living pictures. Every train has brought its arrivals many familiar faces among those who will linger through April.

At The Carolina

The week has been one of midseason activity at The Carolina, every train bringing its arrivals and departures few. Social affairs informal in their character, have occupied attention, the younger set planning for the annual St. Valentine's cotillion to be held next Tuesday evening. Favors and figures will be in keeping with the occasion and the program one of novelty and surprise.
