

UMC NITRO CLUB and NEW CLUB SHOT SHELLS

During fifty years, four generations of shooters have sworn by the "old yellow Shells"—UMC NEW CLUBS.

They have never been found wanting where, wary, hard-to-kill game is concerned. Misfires are never thought of with these old reliable, hard hitting shells.

A smokeless powder shell equally popular in its class is the NITRO CLUB Steel Lined Shell. The powder charge protected by the steel lining guarantees a uniform load when hunting under the most severe weather conditions.

"FAMOUS MASTERPIECES"

Annual Living Pictures Net Large Sum For Charitable Work

Audience Which Overflows Carolina Music Hall Shows Appreciation By Enthusiastic Encores

PERFECTLY carried out in elaborate, artistic detail, Thursday evening's "Living Pictures," an entertainment feature now anticipated from year to year, were enjoyed by a company which filled the music hall to overflowing, many standing throughout the evening, and round after round of applause indicating the favor with which the program was received. In several ways the series were new, several burlesques at the close, contrasting happily with the opening numbers which were largely reproductions of famous masterpieces and shown in three different frames; three-quarters, oval and full length.

The first picture was a "Sargent portrait of Mrs. T," effective in its simple lines and broad mass of color; Mrs. R. E. Tiedemann in a stunning evening gown the model. Miss McRobb as "Ophelia," gowned in white with floral ornaments, was very pleasing; Miss Dorothy Ballantyne dainty, as a "Colonial Belle," in old time costume and picture hat, and Miss Elinor Lapham quaint as "Granny" in neckerchief and specs. Miss Eleanor Head was superb as "Madam Recamier," a perfect replica of the famous picture, and the same was true of Miss Ruby Sewall as "Mrs. Drummond Smith." Miss Ethel Check concluded the first series as the "Roman Water Carrier," her simple gown and graceful pose most effective.

The "heads," Miss Alice Hammond as "The Nun," Miss Lady Maud Fuller as the "Girl with the green bow," Miss Emilie Rockwood as "Countess Potoca," Mrs. Tiedemann as "Innocence," and little Margaret Good as "Margaret," were all excellent. The larger pictures were a fitting ending, Mrs. Guy Metcalf and little Clarissa in "Madam LeBrun" as if one was looking upon the masterpiece itself; the double encore a tribute to its beauty. Mr. Ralph N. Gardner and Miss Barbara C. Lewis as "Johnny Jones and Sister Sue," were a note which contrasted well with the tragic poses of Miss Priscilla Beall as "Lady Macbeth." Miss Harriet Gay as "Good Night" was splendid; the popular advertisement "It feels good on the back," by Mr. Gardner and Miss Carolyn Fuller, "He Cometh Not" by Miss Elizabeth Stewart, "Say When" by Mr. Gardner and Miss Lady Fuller, leading up to "Pinehurst impressions or who's who" as seen from the Club house piazza, which concluded the evening.

The collection which will be devoted to charitable purposes, amounted to one hundred and twenty-five dollars, with requests by the score for a repetition of the program.

PROMISES TO BE LEADER

Advance Entries for Championship Tourney Assure Classy Field

From the standpoint of both representation and entrance the eleventh annual United North and South Amateur Championship promises to be a leader in the brilliant series. Already gathered here are a number of prominent players among which National Champion Fownes is the leader and the addition of such names as Travis, Evans, Gardner, Hunter, Whittemore and others is thus early assured.

While other tournaments here may outrank the "United" in size, this event continues preeminent among the important contests of the entire year. The women's event next week, is followed by the amateur-professional best-ball match and the Open Championship, the Amateur starting with a qualification round on the twenty-ninth.

The Pineneedle Golfers

The Pineneedle golfers of Detroit, once more gathered at the Holly Inn, are enjoying numerous tournaments, among them a cup presented by W. A. Livingston and won by Dudley W. Smith; a bronze figure, the gift of George B. Burton, won by Victor F. Dewey; a cup given by Mrs. T. W. Connor and won by W. M. McGregor, and a consolation prize, donated by Mr. Thomas Neal, won by George E. Burton. In the group assembled this season in addition to those already mentioned are; W. S. Rathbone, H. R. Earle, J. Cotner, Jr., T. W. Connor and C. W. Herbst.

Nicholls and Jolly Win

Several hundred people followed Thursday's four-ball match between Professionals Nicholls and Jolly, against the Ross brothers, the visitors winning two up and one to play, with a best ball of seventy to seventy-two. Donald headed the list with a seventy-two, to seventy-three for Nicholls; Jolly scoring seventy-five and Alex. who was not in form, eighty.

On Thursday Next

The Village Club announce a special sale of useful and decorative articles for Thursday next, in The Carolina music hall, from three until eight. Following the sale a progressive bridge party will round out the evening; the proceeds to be used by the Club for charitable work.

"Bird" Man Arrives Today

Beachey and his Curtiss biplane arrive today for a three weeks' stay, the program fully outlined in last week's OUTLOOK. For the time being even golf promises to be back grounded by interest in the "bird man."

International Ticket Agents

The International Association of Ticket Agents numbering one hundred and fifty, were the guests of Mr. Tufts Thursday, spending the morning here as a pleasing incident of their trip.
