THE MIDWINTER HANDICAP

Fifth Annual Trap Shooting Tourney Will Attract Fast and Classy Field

Big Card of $1860 Guarantees $500 to Winner and Provides Liberally for Sweeps

ADVANCE entries ensure an exceptionally fast and classy field for the Fifth Annual Midwinter Handicap Trap Shooting Tournament scheduled for the full week of January 22-27, inclusive. The big card is the lavish added money, amounting to $1860. and including a guarantee of $500 and splendid cup to the Handicap winner; $200 and a cup to the Preliminary winner; gold and silver medals for high averages, and liberal allowances in the sweepstakes; details of management in the hands of Luther J. Squier, under the Squier money back system, with regular additional and optional entrance for the sweeps.

Informal practice shooting opens the week on Monday and Tuesday, the program starting on Wednesday with ten twenty-target events, which is duplicated on Thursday. The hundred-target Preliminary on Friday will be preceded by five twenty-target events, and the hundred-target Handicap by the same program. The entrance for the former $10 and the latter $20, handicaps ranging from sixteen to twenty-three yards with an optional sweep of $2.00. The entrance for all sweepstakes will be $2.00 with additional optional sweeps of $2.00 and $2.50. The selection of the handicap committee will be from the shooters in attendance and the traps, the ideal-leggett under the supervision of Charles North.

The list of advance entries includes H. B. Pottinger, of Charleston, Mo., one of the fastest amateurs in the country, his
