DOUBLE TIE IN FOURSOMES

Scores Run Close in Annual Tin Whistle Invitation Mixed Tournament

Mr. Rumsey and Mrs. Truesdell, Mr. and Mrs. Shannon, Head Thirty-Eight Pairs with Card of Eighty-five

A DOUBLE TIE for first and second added to the interest of mixed foursomes for prizes offered by Messrs. T. L. Redfield, T. S. Lippy, and J. E. Pushee of the Tin Whistles, thirty-eight pairs participating. Heading the list in eighty-five were Mr. and Mrs. R. C. Shannon, II, whose handicap was sixteen, and Mr. J. D. C. Rum-position A. A. Stagg, the Chicago University Coach, and J. E. Kellogg of Alpine (12), tied with A. C. Aborn of Montclair and H. C. Chamberlain of Washington (10), at eighty-five; Stagg and Kellogg winning the play-off.

Walter Camp, equally well known as coach and author, was also a contestant and paired with Mr. King, donor of the trophies, scored ninety with an allowance of nine strokes. Mr. Camp's son, Walter Camp, Jr., partnered with T. N. McAboy of Chevey Chase, made ninety-six with a handicap of nine.

Numerous ties bunched the field which stretched away but a stroke apart.

Utility Departments Attract Many

The various Utility Departments of the Village claim the attention of many visitors, especially the Dairy Barn and Creamery.

Life-the-Latch Popular

The Lift-the-Latch cabin at Pine Bluff was never more popular for luncheons, teas and suppers.

Demand for Saddle Horses Large

Manager Mundy of the Livery is transferring many favorite mounts to private owners.

sey and Mrs. W. E. Truesdell, whose allowance was twenty-one; the latter pair winning the play off. Two strokes away in eighty-seven were Mr. C. L. Becker and Mrs. I. S. Robeson (17), and Mr. P. S. Maclaughlin and Miss Mary Fownes (4). A triple tie resulted at eighty-eight, between Mr. John Sweeney and Miss Lucy Priest (16), Mr. W. L. Johnson and Mrs. J. D. Climo (14), and Mr. W. A. Nicholson and Miss Kate Van Ostrand (6). The balance of the field was closely bunched, with numerous ties throughout, one hundred and five marking the limit.
