NOTE—In the tie play-off for third prize Mr. Robeson and Mrs. Jillson won with a net card of 82 to 84 for Mr. Fownes and Mrs. Vanderbeck; the two best mixed foursome rounds recorded in competition here.

Miss Sinclair Wins at Traps

Miss E. Marie Sinclair of New York was the winner of the weekly trap shooting handicap in a tie shoot-off with J. Livingston Grandin of Boston. In the first test both scored one hundred, with handicaps of twenty and thirty-three. In the shoot-off, Miss Sinclair scored twenty-four with an allowance of four, and Mr. Grandin, twenty-one from scratch. ¶ In second place, Messrs. Whittemore, Huyck and Carley tied at ninety-four.

BERKSHIRE GOLF TOURNEYDavid Strachan and C. H. Lay are Winners in Annual Match Handicap

The annual match play handicap golf tournament for Berkshire guests claimed the attention of the entire household, with the culmination of interest in the award of prizes and the attendant informal "ceremonies."

Two divisions of eight each were provided for. In the first, David Strachan of East Orange defeated Chester W. Davis of West Newton, and in the second, C. H. Lay of Oil City won from T. B. Cobbs of Danville; both matches, 4 and 3.

Others who participated included: Dr. R. T. Taylor, Dr. H. J. Parker, G. W. Dodd, R. G. Day, C. C. Brinton, T. H. Coe, John Clement, J. M. Robinson, J. L. Jones, C. W. Langdon, Jacob Rumpf and N. C. Chamberlain.

WESTGARD'S WORK COMPLETETravels Two Thousand Miles and Nearly All is on Good Roads

Field Representative A. L. Westgard completed his work of mapping the roads within a seventy-five mile radius of Pinehurst early in the week, and the new American Automobile Association map will soon serve as an accurate guide to tourists. In all Westgard covered fully two thousand miles, duplicating but little of this distance and traveling almost entirely upon roads which are not only good but which are being rapidly extended and improved; nearly twice the distance previously estimated and indicating that those most closely associated with the work had not previously fully realized the scope of five years' accomplishment.

Cards at The Berkshire

Bridge and five hundred rounded out a delightful evening at The Berkshire; the prize winners including: Miss Mary J. McLong of Bethlehem, Mrs. Rodney Smith of St. Paul, Mr. C. B. Crockett of Florida, Mrs. A. R. Gage of New York, Mr. Philo S. Clark of Portsmouth, Ohio, Mrs. Jacob Rumpf of New York, Miss M. A. Litchfield of Amesbury, Mrs. John Comerais of Amesbury, Mr. A. L. Allen of Brooklyn, Mrs. D. Strachan of East Orange.

Supper at Gun Club

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Canfield, Mr. and Mrs. George Swigart, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Foster and Mr. and Mrs. B. H. Marshall of Chicago and Mr. and Mrs. Robert E. Stone of Boston made up a congenial party who enjoyed supper at the Gun Club early in the week.

Village Club Meets Wednesday

An important meeting of the Pinehurst Village Club is announced for Wednesday afternoon at 3.30 at The Carolina. ¶ A full attendance is desired.

Col. William Carey Sanger

Col. William Carey Sanger of Sangerfield, N. Y., assistant secretary of the navy under Roosevelt, is among the notables at The Carolina.

WINCHESTER.22 Automatic Rifle

The novelty of its operation is one of the fascinating features of the Winchester .22 Automatic Rifle. Instead of the downward and upward motion of a finger lever, or the backward and forward thrust of a slide handle, the pull on the trigger is the only effort required to shoot the rifle ten times in succession. The only limit to speed in firing is the rapidity with which the trigger can be pulled before each shot. With this speed is coupled fine accuracy, light weight, simple and strong construction, and ease and quickness of handling. Note the beautiful appearance of the rifle. It lists at $25.00, but is sold everywhere for much less. It is the ideal vacationist's rifle.
