

THE HOLLY INN

Season: January to May

The Holly Inn is one of the most comfortable, attractive and popular hotels in the South, accommodating with its annexes, 200 guests. The interior, which has been thoroughly renovated and refurnished since last season, is cheerful and homelike, no effort having been spared in putting the rooms and furnishings in first-class condition. There are a number of rooms connected with private baths which are let singly or en suite. The hotel is heated throughout by steam and there are open fires in the foyer and parlors. A large music room where daily concerts and dancing are enjoyed, together with the attractive Dutch room and the billiard room, provide appreciated social features. The excellent cuisine and service for which the hotel is noted, will be maintained and patrons will find the Holly Inn a most comfortable home from January to May.

GROWING IN POPULARITY

Monday Morning Card Parties Claim Attention of Entire Colony

STEADILY growing in popularity are the Monday morning card parties at The Carolina; Messdames Carr, Bedford, McMuir, Borders, Tut-hill, Voorhees, Hills, Foster and Miss Rice the prize winners. For next Monday morning's party, favors appropriate to Washington's birthday will add interest to the gathering. ¶ Prominent among the notables gathered at The Carolina is George Barr McCutcheon, the author, who returns with Mrs. McCutcheon for an extended visit. Dr. Carlos F. MacDonald, whose reputation as an insanity expert is International, is again here for March. Mr. Harry A. Thompson, editor of The Country Gentleman, and Major Henry C., complete the distinguished quartette. ¶ Activity in the cottage colony continues, and Commodore and Mrs. J. T. Newton are planning to begin work upon their new bungalow at once, while others are bidding for one or two favorite sites, much to the satisfaction of Director of Development Arthur S. Newcomb. ¶ Socially, tonight's Washington's birthday Cotillion rounds out a week of many affairs. ¶ The big list of arrivals includes old friends and new, many of whom will linger until mid-April.
