MISS RAVENSCROFT SCORES 75

Rounds Out Her Visit Here With ROUND THE BANQUET BOARD
Phenomenal Medal Round

MISS Gladys Ravenscroft, the English girl who holds the American golf championship, rounded out a delightful visit here Tuesday. For three weeks past she has contributed to the enjoyment of all, advancing from rounds of eighty-five to eighty-one, with a climax in a record breaking seventy-five on number two course Monday afternoon.

Going out in thirty-six—3 5 4 4 2 6 4 4—Miss Ravenscroft returned in thirty-nine—4 5 4 5 4 3 6 3 5. The outward journey was well nigh perfection, four strokes under bogey. Coming back Miss Ravenscroft missed a short putt on the thirteenth green and she failed to carry the trap at the left on her long tee shot on the sixteenth, the shortest cut to the green to be sure, but a desperate chance which few men would undertake. She was well out, but her approach was short and she required two putts, just making the one which went down. ¶ On the short seventeenth the tee shot made the pit at the front of the green, but she made a beautiful recovery and holed a twelve-foot putt for a three. ¶ Her drive on the eighteenth was a long one, but sliced to the extreme right of the course. Her second had fine distance, but made the trap at the front of the green which cost her a stroke. She was well out in three, however, made a fine approach and went down in five. ¶ The chances are that the gallery of several hundred people which followed the last half of the play, would have carried Miss Ravenscroft to the Club House had she been a man! No such demonstration of enthusiasm has been manifested in many a day.

The score lowers the previous women's record ten strokes. Last year Miss Lillian B. Hyde of Bay Shore, the United title holder, made an eighty-five, and Mrs. J. V. Hurd, formerly Dorothy Champbell, an eighty-six; both of which were considered remarkable at the time. ¶ Playing with Miss Ravenscroft was Miss Florence Harvey of Hamilton, twice Canadian champion and twice runner-up, and Mrs. R. H. Barlow, former Eastern champion.

Dinner for Miss Neighbors

Mr. J. Mitchell Tull of Philadelphia was host at a good-bye dinner party at The Berkshire on Monday evening in honor of Miss Anne Neighbors of Cleveland. The guests included Miss Neighbors' mother, Mrs. J. V. Neighbors, Miss Bernadette Herman of Washington, and Messrs. Frank Hall, H. Z. Coffey and H. F. Harrison, all of New York.

Today's Play Opens the United

Today's qualification round opens the annual United Championship and what promises to be the classiest event in a classic series.

Miss Ravenscroft is Both Hostess and Guest at Carolina Dinners

Several elaborate dinners have added to the interest of the week at The Carolina, among them a good-bye given to a few intimates by Mrs. R. H. Barlow and Miss Gladys Ravenscroft. The center of the table was transformed into a miniature golf course and in the center rested a large globe with Miss Ravenscroft, carrying the English flag, standing triumphant, in effigy, upon the North Pole. The delightful feature of the evening was the surprise presentation of a loving cup to the champion, the gift of the Silver Foils, presented by Mr. and Mrs. Irving S. Robeson. ¶ In the group were Mrs. Philip M. K. Shannon and Miss Shannon, Misses Cummings, Clapp, Harvey and Brian, Messrs. Clapp, Johnston, Robinson, Rammage, Gunn, Brownell, Maclaughlin and Leggitt. ¶ On the evening following Miss Eleanor Brian of Washington gave a return and a farewell dinner to Miss Ravenscroft. The guests included: Mrs. Barlow, Mrs. Shannon, Misses Harvey, Priest, Clapp, and Cummings, and Messrs. Johnston, Leggitt, Robinson, Clapp, Gunn, Batterel and Rammage.

In Honor of Mrs. L. W. Smith

Mrs. J. G. Splane entertained with a dinner and dance at the Pines on Tuesday evening in honor of her house guest, Mrs. L. W. Smith of Pittsburgh. Others present included Mr. and Mrs. W. L. Hurd and Mr. and Mrs. J. V. Hurd, Mr. N. S. Hurd of Pittsburgh, Mr. Edward Beall of Uniontown, Dr. Myron W. Marr of Dorchester, Mr. and Mrs. H. S. Jones of Garden City and Mr. and Mrs. G. H. Oldring of Brooklyn. ¶ Wednesday afternoon Mrs. Splane gave a bridge tea for Mrs. Smith; Mesdames John and Charles Smithers the prize winners. Others present included Mesdames J. D. C. Rumsey, Tyler L. Redfield, H. S. Jones, G. H. Oldring and H. W. Ormsbee.

Croquet for the Little Folks

Mrs. H. W. Priest entertained the little folks at The Carolina with a croquet tournament Wednesday afternoon. Master Joseph Jeffrey and Miss Winifred Croft were the prize winners. Others enjoying the affair were Masters Clapp and Hoopes and Misses Eleanor Croft, Betty Marshall and Clarissa Metcalf.

Equestrians Picnic at Thaggard's

Saddle picnics are replacing fox hunting among the equestrians, a trip to picturesque Thaggard's Mill, under the leadership of Mr. and Mrs. Twitty, providing a delightful afternoon. In the group were Mr. and Mrs. Foster, Mr. and Mrs. Marshall, Mr. and Mrs. G. W. Swigart and Miss Cunningham.
