CARTER BEATS WHITTEMORE

Miller and Beekman Take Governors' and Secretary's Trophies in Holiday Tournament

Consolation Won by Gardner, Johnson and Ramage in Week of Close and Interesting Play

AFTER taking the medal in the qualifying round by the closest possible margin from H. V. Seggerman of Englewood Phil Carter won the President's trophy in the first division of the annual Holiday Golf Tournament on New Year's Day by defeating Parker W. Whittemore, the Brookline player in the finals three up and two to play.

It was a close and interesting match. Whittemore took the first hole in three, one better than par, with a phenomenal putt from the edge of the green, and held the Metropolitan champion one down for the next three holes, which were halved. Carter evened up on the fifth hole, making it in three. Manifestly it was going to take very cagey golf to take this match. The Nassau player surged ahead with a three in the sixth only to lose the seventh. He took the next two, however, and finished the first nine holes two up.

He held this lead, losing one, halving four and winning two out of the next seven, taking the match.

This was the only hard play Carter encountered after the medal play with Seggerman. He defeated J. M. Thompson, Springhaven, 8 and 7; C. L. Becker, Woodland, 7 and 6; John Bredemus, the all round athlete, 8 and 7.

Seggerman was twice within the closest possible call of figuring large in the results. He came as near as mortal man can to taking the medal from the champion, and of eliminating Whittemore and meeting Carter again in the finals. These two met in the semi-finals. They finished the eighth hole neck and neck, stayed practically even down the course, and came to the eighteenth with Seggerman one in the lead. Whittemore took this and squared the account—all even at the end of the course. They both went after the game on the next with splendid golf, halving the hole in four and par. Here Seggerman lost his drive, slicing it into the rough, and so the match.

In the finals of the consolation division Dr. Gardner of Agawam Hunt had it all his own way, beating G. M. Howard of Halifax 5 and 4. S. O. Miller from Englewood, N. J., captured the Governors' trophy by handily defeating C. B. Hudson, North Fork, in the finals, 7 and 6. In the third division the Secretary's trophy went to R. H. Beekman of Metacommet, who met and vanquished L. C. Spindler, Fox Hills, in the finals, 3 up and 2 to play.

The consolation prize in the second division as carried away by Dr. Loren Johnson of Chevy Chase, and in the third division by S. Y. Ramage who won his match from C. W. Harmon, Wykagyl, at the finish, 5 and 4.
