HUNKA TIN

An Echo From the American Ambulance

You may talk about your voitures
When you're sitting round the quarters, But when it comes to getting blesses in,
Take a little tip from me.
Let those heavy motors be.
Pin your faith to Henry F's old Hunka
Tin,

Give her essence and l'eau,
Crank her up and let her go,
You back firin', spark-plug-foulin'
Hunka Tin.

The paint is not so bad,
And no doubt you'll find the hood
Will rattle like a boiler shop en route;
The cooler's sure to boil,
And perhaps she's leakin' oil, Then oftentimes the horn declines to toot.

But when the night is black,
And there's blesses to take back,
And they hardly give you time to take a smoke,

It's mighty good to feel;
When you're sitting at the wheel, She'll be running when the bigger cars are broke.

After all the wars are past,
And we're taken home at last,
To our reward of which the preacher sings,

When those ukulele sharps
Will be strumming golden harps,
And the aviators all have reg'lar wings,
When the Kaiser is in Hell,
With the furnace drawing well, Paying for his million different kinds of sin,

If they're running short of coal,
Show me how to reach the hole,
And I'll cast a few loads down with Hunka Tin.

Yes, Tin, Tin, Tin,
You exasperating puzzle, J'unka Tin, I've abused you and I've flayed you,
But, by Henry Ford who made you,
You are better than a Packard, Hunka
Tin.

The Maher Clan Gathers

The "Vernon Castles" of the One-step, Waltz and Fox-Trot were out in full force, in spite of the inclement weather, at a shindig held at ye old Club house for their express benefit last Tuesday evening. Old folks and young, who are employed in the village are cordially invited to attend these "hops," which are conducted by Mr. James Maher every other week, until later in the season, when one will be held once a week. As Mr. Mahr is bearing the expense himself it is hoped that the employees will endeavor to co-operate with him to make these dances a success. The Carolina Orchestra will furnish the music and those attending will be assured of a pleasant and enjoyable evening.

RHODE ISLAND TRIUMPHS

First Weekly Putting Contest for Women Won by Miss Gordon Golf Champion

Miss Elizabeth (?) Gordon, who holds the Women's Golf Championship of Rhode Island, set the standard for the year's play and led the field in the first putting contest of the season, held on the big clock in front of the country club.

The first round resulted in a three cornered tie between Miss Gordon, Mrs.
J. D. Armstrong and Mrs. George Statzell. They all returned a tally of 26 for the twelve positions. Mrs. Statzell failed to linger for the play off. Mrs.
Armstrong improved the score by one, recording a 26, one over par. It was then that the Providence expert began showing her real speed. She came around to the seventh position one over two, apparently heading to tie the score.
But there she was a little closer to the cup, and sank two ten foot putts in succession, scored perfect twos in the remaining chances and finished victorious with a 23. This equals the best the men were able to do last week, and is only one above last year's best performance.

Mrs. G. M. Howard was next in line, leading Mrs. Fayen, Miss Morrison, Miss Hathaway, Mrs Tomkins and Mrs.
Hathaway in the order named.

Miss Carolyn Bogart Too Fast for Field in Annual St Thomas Tournament

Making a correct imitation of Eleanora Sears, Miss Carolyn Bogart smashed and lobbed her way through to the finals of the annual St. Thomas tournament for women. Miss Gertrude Thurston and Miss Bertha Morrison could not stay her progress in the first bracket.

Mrs. Ralph Page edged in the final round from the other end, defeating Miss Esther Tufts and Miss Mabel Bliss. But she was in no wise equal to staying the victorious progress. In the first set she negotiated one game. In the second she negotiated none. Sum total, Miss Bogart assimilatd the cup, having lost just four games during the tournament.

Stuyvesant Peabody

And Mrs. Peabody of Hinsdale, Illinois, have rented the Craddock cottage and have been welcomed by the Colony for the Season. Mr. F. T. Ellison from Rochester had originally signed on for the cottage, but subsequent events made it impossible for him to take it as planned. Mrs. Poabody is a sister of Miss Mary V. Healy.

Maxwell Begins

To cut down the Season's mark for the championship course. First crack out of the box he slipped around for a 78, just to warm up, and so set the first low amateur score of the Season.
