

STATZELL WINS IN A WALK

Divides Honors with Barr in Medal Play

With a handicap of 18 and a strong card of 88 Geo. W. Stazell of Aronimink celebrated his first appearance in the Tin Whistle tournament this season by lifting the prize on Friday, December 21st. The occasion was a medal round in two classes. His net score of 74 had no serious opposition. Howard Phillips gave the closest fight with a 77, and also had the distinction of making the best gross score of the day an 84. Truesdell and

Howard were shooting safely under ninety, and led the crowd home at the stretch.

W. T. Barr of Marine and Field, J. D. C. Rumsey and J. D. C. Rumsey and J. R. Goodall, the Bellerive player made a hot and even thing out of the second class play. They all returned to the recording angel with the exact same and identical score, to wit, a lively 79. This of course led to further hostilities, and a final and decisive victory for Goodall, who even now has the token of victory on his mantel shelf.

Pick Cotton for the Soldiers

When Benjamin F. Butler, marshal of the Ben Salem hosts called upon the Eagle Springs country to contribute their mite to the Sandhill fund in the National Y. M. C. A. drive, the call fell upon a community already sapped to the last penny. But as Dr. DeMeritt found at Jackson Springs, the will was there and the way was found. A large part of a $40 contribution was provided by the boys of Marienfeld, Doctor C. Hanford Henderson's Preparatory School below Samareand. Great was the demand for hands to pick the priceless cotton still lingering in the fields. Seeing their chance these students enrolled under the banner of King Cotton, and gathered in enough wages to more than bear their share of the levy.

Mr. M. I. Kennedy, M. C. Lean, Benjamin F. Butler and George Maurice gathered in the balance of $40, which runs the Sandhill fund beyond the $1600 mark.
