

Our Government Requests:

That some of us shall go into actual service—leave our homes, our work and our dear ones—to go across the water and offer our bodies in the supreme sacrifice. To others of us it asks that we SAVE and lend our money in War Savings and Thrift Stamps—giving us the best of security and paying us 4 per cent interest.

Which is the Greater

Our boys leave with a smile and a display of eagerness for battle. They must be supplied with guns, food and clothing. War Savings Stamps will furnish these things. The boys are "over there and at it"—waiting. Shall we be found wanting?

Thrift and War Savings Stamps for sale at all banks and postoffice.

WAR SAVINGS COMMITTEE.

pits. But she travelled up to the green in two perfect shots and sank a long putt for a birdie three, and reduced the lead against her to 4. On the 11th she repeated the performance, again emulating her opponent's tactics and saving herself by a 15 foot putt.

They halved the next three and so reached the 15th. Mrs. Hurd Dormie Four. Here a fitting and characteristic play ended the match. Mrs. Hurd walked up and dropped her ball into the hole from the edge of the green, reaching the grand climax with a par three, and winning 5 and 4.

The winners in the other divisions are shown in the accompanying table.
