| Monday's First Match Round    |       |     |

At the end of one of the most exciting and hard fought matches that have been played here in a long time Miss Sarah Fownes defeated Mrs. Hurd, the North and South Champion, by 1 up in the first match round played on the Number Two course Monday.

Miss Fownes started by winning the first hole in par, but played the second poorly, lost the third to Mrs. Hurd's par 4, and won the fourth with a par 4 of her own. The fifth was halved, the best ball of the two players being one stroke over par at that stage and the scores all even.

Mrs. Hurd then won the sixth but lost the next three in succession, the ninth going to Miss Fownes when she evaded a partial stymie and sank the putt for a remarkably fine three. This made Miss Fownes 2 up at the turn, where both arrived in 45.

Mrs. Hurd Three Down.

Coming in Mrs. Hurd took the tenth in par, but lost the next two holes and was then 3 down. The thirteenth went to Mrs. Hurd and the long fourteenth was won by Miss Fownes in par 5. The North and South champion, who was then 3 down with only four holes still to play, won the fifteenth and sixteenth and would have squared the match at the seventeenth save for a fine recovery by Miss Fownes from a trap into which she had driven in an attempt to reach the green. The hole was halved in fours and Mrs. Hurd was still 1 down on the way to the eighteenth.

Miss Fownes was a long way from the eighteenth green on her third, but approached to within four feet of the cup. Mrs. Hurd, who was near the edge of the green in three, tried for a win, and although her ball stopped a few inches short of the cup it came to rest in the line of Miss Fownes' putt and made an almost perfect stymie.

Part of the gallery had already moved over toward the nineteenth tee, anticipating an extra hole match, when a great burst of applause announced the fact that Miss Fownes had evaded the difficulty and sunk the putt for a halve, thus winning the match by 1 up. The cards:

Mrs. Scammell beat Mrs. Chapman. Mrs. Scammell played against Mrs. John D. Chapman and won by 1 up on the home green.

The match was all even at the turn, the winning factors being a stymie which deprived Mrs. Chapman of a win at the thirteenth and a putt by Mrs. Scammell from off the green for a winning 3 on the fifteenth. Mrs. Chapman qualified 4 strokes ahead of Mrs. Scammell on Saturday.

Miss Rosenthal and Mrs. Barlow Win

There were no surprises in the lower bracket. Miss Rosenthal and Mrs. J. R. Price both went out in 45 in their match and Miss Rosenthal led by 2 up at the turn despite a birdie 3 to the credit of Mrs. Price on the fourth and another 3 on the ninth.

The Western champion was 39 for the first eight holes, but took a 6 on the ninth, where she drove into the woodlands. Coming in Miss Rosenthal was still 2 up going to the sixteenth and won the match there, by 3 and 2.

Mrs. Barlow went out in 43, against Mrs. Prichard, and won by 4 up and 3 to play.

Tuesday's Semi-Finals.

In the semi-final round played on Number Two, on Tuesday, Miss Fownes defeated Mrs. M. J. Scammell by 3 and 2, and Mrs. Barlow won from Miss Rosenthal by 1 up.

Miss Fownes went out in 44 in her match and had Mrs. Scammell 2 down at the turn, where the latter arrived in 46. Coming in all the holes were halved up to the sixteenth, where Miss Fownes won with a 5 and ended the contest with a 4 and a 5 left over for an easy 88.

Mrs. Barlow beats Miss Rosenthal.

The match between Mrs. Barlow and Miss Rosenthal was a great contest. The first hole was halved in par and Mrs. Barlow took the second in par 4 by getting almost to the green in 2. Going to the third Miss Rosenthal's drive struck a tree while her opponent again went down in par 4 and made herself 2 up.

The Western champion won her first hole at the fourth, where her daring second shot landed on the trap encircled green and stayed there, giving her an easy win in 4 or par. To offset this Miss Rosenthal threw away a good chance to win on the fifth, taking a 1 instead and followed it up by taking three putts on the sixth after driving to the green. Both went down in 4 and Mrs. Barlow was still 1 up.

The Philadelphia player took the long seventh in par 5 with the aid of a ten foot putt.

Miss Rosenthal drove behind a tree going to the eighth and Mrs. Barlow won with a 3. Both players had a 4 on the ninth, Mrs. Barlow reaching the turn 3 up in 41, while Miss Rosenthal took 45.

A series of traps intervened in the Chicago player's favor at this stage of the contest, Mrs. Barlow losing the tenth, eleventh and thirteenth by getting trapped on the way to each hole. This squared the match and Miss Rosenthal took the lead for the first and only time in the contest, at the four-
