

teenth, where she sank a fifteen foot putt for a par 5.

The short fifteenth went to Mrs. Barlow in 3, when her opponent missed a lengthy putt and the Philadelphia golfer regained the lead at the sixteenth, where she went down in par 4 after driving over 220 yards in a direct line for the pin and getting on in 2. Mrs. Barlow had a chance for a 3 on this 400 yard hole, but played safe. Miss Rosenthal drove to the green at the next hole and won with a 3 and the players started for the eighteenth all even.

Miss Barlow started off with a remarkable drive and followed it up by a great brassie shot which brought her almost to the edge of the green in 2. Miss Rosenthal's second shot stopped behind a lofty bunker and her third went away over into the clubhouse shrubbery. A fine recovery brought her to within nine or ten feet of the cup in 4, with Mrs. Barlow's ball about the same distance away in 3.

The Western champion sank the long putt for a 5 and Mrs. Barlow followed suit by putting down her almost equally long one for a 4 and a win, which gave her the match.

Mrs. Hurd Wins Easily.

Mrs. Hurd played against Mrs. John D. Chapman in the consolation section and won by 6 and 4. Mrs. Hurd went out in 43 and was 4 up at the turn.

In the semi-final match Mrs. Pritchard defeated Mrs. J. R. Price by 3 and 1 and finished in 45, 45—90.

Philadelphia golfers figured as winners in two 20-hole matches in the semi-finals. Mrs. E. V. Murphy of Aronomink defeated Mrs. C. D. Barrows of Portland at the twentieth hole in the fourth consolation, and Mrs. Peter Boyd of Philadelphia won at the second extra hole from Mrs. Nat Hurd of Pittsburgh in the sixth eight.

Extra hole matches were also won by two Jersey players, Miss Kate Bomann of Plainfield and Miss Winifred V. Cullen of Summit, both winning their matches at the nineteenth hole. Miss Bomann came all the way up from 5 down at the tenth hole. Miss Louise Patterson of Plainfield, won her match by 9 up and 8 to play, the safest victory of the day.

Wednesday's Finals.

The tournament was wound up on Wednesday, with its reputation for exciting matches and narrow victories entirely unimpaired. Mrs. Barlow won the final contest and the title on the 18th green of the championship course by a margin so slight that an extra hole contest appeared inevitable up to the last instant.

Neither Mrs. Barlow nor Miss Fownes played up to their usual form on the way out. Both wandered into the woodlands on frequent occasions, on the first few holes, we are told, and missed the long ones and the short ones with equal impartiality. We do not go into details, not because they were particularly harrowing, but solely because we arrived late on the scene and of course the Outlook has never yet described a match or a race or a shooting contest or any other affair that it has not personally viewed. It is for this reason that we cannot vouch for the accuracy of the current report that the referee was fired somewhere around the fourth hole, for absent mindedly whistling the refrain of "Oh, These Wild, Wild Women," and that Lou Hamilton was thereupon substituted as the man most certain to rise to the solemnity of the occasion.

Be all this as it may, it would seem that it was more by good luck than good management that Mrs. Barlow found herself 1 up at the turn and that Miss Fownes assumed the lead, in her turn, at the eleventh hole.

Good Work Coming In.

After that both players settled down and played steady if not sensational golf, halving all holes up to the 17th. Mrs. Barlow topped her drive for that hole but approached to within 15 feet of the cup and sank the long putt for a winning 3, thus squaring the match.

On the way to the 18th, Mrs. Barlow drove into the rough, behind a bush, and Miss Fownes landed behind a lofty bunker on her second shot, but each player was equi-distant from the green in 3. Miss Fownes misplayed her fourth shot but was dead to the pin in 5. Mrs. Barlow's ball lay some nine or ten feet from the cup in 4, and she won the match and the title by running down the long putt.

Mrs. Hurd's Great Round.

Mrs. Hurd played the best round of the day and the season, in her final match with Mrs. Pritchard for the consolation trophy. The Pittsburgh golfer went out in 40 and came home in 41, for an 81, and won the match by 7 up and 6 to play. Mrs. Pritchard went out in 46 but was 4 down at the turn. Mrs. Hurd's card:

Out: 6, 4, 5, 4, 5, 3, 6, 4, 3—40

In: 4, 5, 5, 5, 5, 3, 5, 4, 3—41—81

Other Victories and Defeats.

Mrs. A. J. Harris, of Janesville, Wis. won the trophy in the second eight, defeating Mrs. William West, of Philadelphia, by 2 up, and Miss Kate Bomann, of Plainfield, won the consolation trophy, defeating Mrs. J. D. Hathaway, of Montreal, by 3 and 2.

The trophy in the third eight went to Mrs. J. W. Turnbull, of Philadelphia, who won from Mrs. Donald Parson, of Youngstown, by 1 up, a surprisingly narrow margin of victory and one that emphasizes Mrs. Parson's steady improvement.

Mrs. E. H. Vare, of Whitmarsh, won the third consolation trophy, defeating Mrs. C. F. Uebelacker, of Hackensack, by 3 and 2.

In the fourth eight, the match for the chief trophy was postponed. Mrs. C. S. Waterhouse and Mrs. F. S. Dantorth will meet in the final contest in the course of the next few days. The consolation trophy went to Miss Patterson of Plainfield.

The fifth eight was won by Miss Winifred V. Cullen, of Canoe Brook, and the consolation trophy by Mrs. Nash Rockwood, of Dunwoodie.

Mrs. Peter Boyd, of Philadelphia, won in the sixth eight, the consolation trophy going to Mrs. L. N. DeVausney of Montclair.

In the seventh eight, Mrs. John Shepherd, Jr., took the trophy and Mrs. G. A. Magoon won in the consolation section.

(Continued on page six)

"The Big Five"

The Par Golf Balls of 1919

RADIO...$1.05

AMERICA'S BEST.
LONG, TRUE, STRONG

RED FLASH...85¢

BRILLIANT IN ACTION
AND VERY DEPENDABLE

BLUE FLASH...75¢

GOOD
ALL-AROUND BALL

TAPLOW...60¢

A LIGHT BALL FOR WOMEN
THE BEST FLOATER MADE

SILVER KING...$1.25

ENGLAND'S
BEST

IMPORTED CLUBS, CAPS,
BRITISH GOLF SUITS, SWEATERS,
STOCKINGS, SOCKS, GOLF SHOES.

JOHN WANAMAKER

Sole national distributor New York and Philadelphia

BOSTON OFFICE
ROBT. HAGGERTY, BIGELOW-KENNARD BLDG.

CHICAGO OFFICE
GEO. BRAID, LYTTEN BLDG.

