Deserting The Carolina Hotel this season, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Waterhouse and daughter, Miss Irma Waterhouse, of New York City, are occupying The Mistletoe.

As surely as the robins return in the springtime Stuyvesant LeRoy, Horace Sise and O. B. Wickham will be found early every fall at the Pinecrest Inn for a winter's sojourn. The arrival and departure of this faithful trio mark the opening and close of every season.

Newcomers in the ranks of cottage renters are the J. G. Luces of Pelham, N. Y. The attractive young girl whom we see driving the Buick is Miss Luce, eldest daughter. The Luces have leased The Box, cottage of Mr. Orson Hoyt, of New York, N. Y.

Townsend's Triplex

Rides over the uneven ground like a ship rides the waves

The Greatest Grass-cutter on Earth Cuts a Swath 86 Inches Wide

Drawn by one horse and operated by one man, the TRIPLEX will mow more lawn in a day than the best motor mower ever made, and cut it better and at a fraction of the cost. Drawn by one horse and operated by one man, it will mow more lawn in a day than any three ordinary horse-drawn mowers with three horses and three men. Does not smash the earth and plaster it in the mud in Springtime, nor crush out its life between hot rollers and hard, hot ground in Summer as does the motor mower.
