

The Week in Pinehurst

FOX HUNTING IS ONE OF PINEHURST'S POPULAR PASTIMES

Reading from left to right: Mr. Coffee, huntsman, Mrs. E. P. Spencer, Miss Houck, Miss Butterfield, Miss Buntin, Mr. Call, Mr. Gordon Cameron, Mrs. Glidden Osborne and Mrs P. C. Thomas

Mrs. John A. Wasserman has moved from the Carolina to the Cloverleaf Apartments and will remain there until the end of the season.

Count Otto Salm is another added to the list of many who has moved to the Cloverleaf Apartments. The Count will be with us for a few weeks yet.

Mr. S. R. Scribner, well known theatrical man from New York, is in our midst. He will remain here indefinitely. Mr. Scribner is registered at the Holly Inn.

Pool is getting to be quite a pastime for the youngsters. Every evening small boys with knee pants are to be seen in the billiard room at the Carolina. Mr. John McGinnis, of New York, claims the title for his ten year old boy. Mr. McGinnis will act as manager and will accept all challenges coming from boys with knee pants only.

Mr. and Mrs. George Arrel, parents of Mrs. Donald Parson, of Youngstown, O., will be guests at the Carolina sometime this month. They come here after an extended stay at the Bon Air Hotel at Augusta, Georgia.

Mr. W. E. Slater, of Washington, D. C., has subrented the Arlington Cottage and will remain there until the end of the season.

Have you heard the star trio at the Carolina or at the Club lately? The trio is led by the renowned and popular Mac-Loughlin, who is aided by Mr. Charles Smith, of Short Hills, N. J., and Mr. Jock Bowker, of Boston, Mass., otherwise known as the "noisy trio."

Mr. Stuyvesant Peabody bought the Cypress cottage and will be ready to occupy the new home with his family next season.

Miss Clare Puleyn, of New York City, arrived here last week and will remain as a guest at the Holly Inn for three weeks.

Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Gainor, of Providence, R. I., arrived and registered at The Berkshire for an indefinite visit.

Sherburn Merrill, after an absence of two weeks, joined Mrs. Boustead's Dancing Class on Monday.

Mrs. S. K. Thurston and her youthful daughter, Florence, arrived here early last week from Boston and will remain at the Carolina for a few weeks.

Mrs. L. F. F. Wanner, of New York City, entertained seven at a dinner party given at the Club on Saturday last.

Mrs. Swift Fernald of Chicago, and Mrs. Ramage Golson of Richmond, Va., are guests at the cottage of Mr. and Mrs. S. Y. Ramage, of Oil City, Pa.

Mr. and Mrs. Stelwagon, of New York City, and a party of four arrived from Palm Beach Monday, and are registered at the Holly Inn for a two weeks visit.

Mrs. W. S. Butterfield, of Battle Creek, Michigan, left for New York last week and is expected to return to-day. She will be accompanied by her husband, who she met in New York.

Mr. Leonard Tufts entertained a party of ten at dinner at the Country Club, on Tuesday evening.

Mrs. Isabel Boyd, of Chicago, is expected to arrive next week. She has made reservations at the Holly Inn and will probably remain for at least three weeks.

Dr. W. L. Kingsley, of Rome, N. Y., who is a guest of Mr. and Mrs. P. C. Thomas at their cottage, the Morganton, entertained seven at a dinner party given at the Club, last Thursday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. Theodore Riehle, of New York City, will leave Pinehurst sometime this week.

Lt. J. A. Mitchell, the local flying expert, having overhauled his machine, is again ready for action. Last week his passenger list numbered twenty. Among those who took fights with Lt Mitchell during the past week, were Miss Thelma Mertz, Port Chester, N. Y.; Miss Judith Jenks, Pinehurst, N. C.; Mr. H. C. Munger, Plainfield, N. J.; Mrs. D. McKolly, Bennettsville, S. C.; Lee R. Page, Aberdeen, N. C.; Mrs. Florence Herr, Southern Pines, N. C.; Mrs. C. F. Gilman, Syracuse, N. Y.; Mr. E. A. Bedell, Littleton, N. H.; W. J. Emery, Poland, Me.; Mr. M. N. McGilvany, Pinehurst, N. C.; Mr. W. M. Blank, Pinehurst, N. C.; Mr. E. T. Wilkinson, Montclair, N. J.; Miss Anna E. Carlson, Montclair, N. J.; L. Detlepen, Montclair, N. J. and a few others.

Mrs. Theodore Riehle, of New York City, entertained at a dinner party given at the Carolina, last Saturday evening, in honor of her husband's birthday, Mr. and Mrs. G. T. Dunlap, Mrs. John Riehle, Miss O. Riehle, Mr. and Mrs. J. P. Cope, Mr. George Dunlap, Jr., and Mr. Alfred Ramage.

Mrs. Walter W. Spadone arrived last week, accompanied by Miss T. J. Saxton, of Brooklyn, N. Y. They registered at the Carolina.

Mr. and Mrs. Fren Borenstein, of Silver City, New Mexico, visited Pinehurst for two days and if it were not for the fact that this was a honeymoon trip for the well-known Silver City financier and they were in a hurry to reach the Western city, they would have stayed longer, as they liked the place immensely. Mr. and Mrs. Fred Borenstein were married in New York two weeks ago, Mrs. Borenstein formerly being Josephine Lesser, daughter of Mr. S. Lesser, the well-known notion importer and manufacturer of New York. They stopped at the Holly Inn.

Mrs. Edgar Guest, of Detroit, wife of the celebrated writer and poet, was elected a member of the Silver Foil organization last week.

Mr. Nat Hurd has practically recovered from the bruises he received while falling from a horse two weeks ago and may be seen at the Track and at the Club occasionally.

Mr. F. W. Eaton, of Boston and a party of six, including Lord Richard Nevill, of Toronto, Canada, are expected at the Holly Inn Friday morning.

J. A. M.