Prominent People Patrons Of Coming Dog Show

As the date of the Second Annual Dog Show draws nearer the interest of Pinehurst dog fanciers becomes keener. From present indications the coming show will surpass its predecessor in all respects, and considering the great merit of the first show this speaks volumes for the second. The recent publication of the Premium List discloses the fact that a large number of Pinehurst people have offered trophies. Mr. George F. Foley, of Philadelphia, who is conceded the best man in the country in his line, is Superintendent of the Show and all entries of dogs should be filed with him, on blanks which he will furnish, not later than March 24th. We give below a partial list of those who have donated prizes for various classes, to be continued in our next issue.
