

The Week in Pinehurst

Henry A. Baker of St. Louis, Mo., and a member of the University Club of that city, is spending a few weeks here as a guest at The Berkshire.

Mr. and Mrs. N. A. Wood of Philadelphia are at The Holly Inn, having arrived there last week. They expect to remain for two weeks.

Mr. Allan Lard entertained at dinner at The Carolina last Saturday night Dr. and Mrs. Myron Marr and Mr. and Mrs. M. B. Johnson.

Mr. and Mrs. George Souther of Albany, N. Y., who have been touring the South, are at present at The Carolina, having arrived last Wednesday from Palm Beach. They will remain here for sometime.

Mr. and Mrs. A. W. Palmer of Albany, N. Y., who have been visitors at The Holly Inn for some time, left for the North last week. Accompanying them were Mr. and Mrs. M. Havens, also of Albany.

Mrs. George N. Towle entertained four at dinner at the Club last Wednesday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. D. B. McLure of Chester, Pa., who have spent quite a while at The Carolina, left Pinehurst last week.

Mr. and Mrs. E. F. Seagram of Waterloo, Ontario, Canada, arrived at the Carolina for a two weeks stay.

Eight year old Miss Mary Bradley of Cleveland, Ohio, entertained at dinner at The Carolina last Sunday, nine year old Guthrie Bicknell, also of Cleveland.

Mrs. John Reed Heard of Brookline, Mass., and her daughter Dorothy are visiting at The Holly Inn. They expect to be here for a few weeks.

Mr. and Mrs. Tom Moore arrived from Washington, D. C., last week and are stopping at The Carolina. The distinguished visitors from the Capitol will remain here for two weeks.

Harvey S. Ladew New York society and clubman, visited Pinehurst for a week. He stopped at The Carolina.

Mr. J. Hayden Preston of Providence, R. I., is stopping at The Carolina. He will remain with us for some time.

Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Davidson left The Carolina for their home in Greenwich, Conn. They were in Pinehurst three weeks and expect to come again next season.

Mrs. T. H. Hogsett of Cleveland is a visitor at The Carolina. Last week she was elected a member of the Silver Foils.

Biogal Manole, owned and entered by Mrs. P. C. Thomas of Rome, N. Y. is a favorite to win in the Saddle Class in the forthcoming Horse Show April 6th.

Dr. and Mrs. D. A. MacLennan of Toronto are at The Holly Inn, having arrived from the North last week. They will remain indefinitely.

Mr. and Mrs. J. Purdue Cope of Delaware Water Ga, Pa., left last Sunday. They will stop off at Washington for a week before going home.

Mrs. Frank B. Anderson of Cleveland, Ohio, and her saughter Francis, arrived last week and are stopping at The Carolina. The will remain here indefinitely.

Mr. H. H. White of Atlanta, Ga. is a visitor at The Carolina and promises to stay for quite awhile.

A very pretty little party for the young folks was held in the ball room of the Carolina on March 24th. The affair was an event no less than the birthday of Master Reginald Wing of Bar Harbor, Maine. From four to six the ball room was given over to merry making by this young gentleman and his guests, and the corridors of the big hotel echoed and re-echoed with the laughter of little children. Those attending were the Misses Hope and Edna Dann, Marjorie Dort, Emma Jane and Cora Swoope, and May O'Connor; Masters Sherburn Merrill, Charles Swoope, Bruce Butterworth, Laddie Platt and Eugene Keith. When it came time to "Going to Jerusalem" and pinning a tail on a cat, nobody could seem to do it so well as Hope Dann, Marjorie Dort, Charlie Swoope and Sherburn Merrill, for they won the prizes. Besides these games, they had a wonderful Jack Horner Pie, with lovely flavors inside, and everybody enjoyed these. They had refreshments and a big birthday cake with nine candles on it. The party ended with a people, has purchased property in the outlying peach belt and plans to make extensive development next season.

The Blakes have leased the Rose cottage to Mrs. Putnam and Mrs. Williams who are here for the season.

From all reports Tom Moore is a pool shark preying on little fish that venture to swim into the Carolina billiard room. He often tosses a straight run of forty.

Miss Statzell and Miss Clarissa Metcalf are here for the Easter holidays.

It was left for Mrs. F. S. Danforth, Mrs. Donald Parson, Mrs. J. D. Chapman and Mrs. J. D. Armstrong to uphold the honors of the winter colony in the North and South in the First Division.

On Wednesday the 24th, Mrs. Owsley entertained Mr. and Mrs. Parson at dinner at the Carolina.

At the present time the Holly Inn has under its roof a collection of "pros" never before equalled in size and quality. Among the most prominent are: Barnes, Fotheringham, Brady, Teller, Wilfred Reid, McNamara, Haddock, Fraser, Githoln, Sarazen, Sylvester, McLeon, Howe, Herndon, Gordon, Edgar, Ogg and Spittel.

Judge Francis Scott and Mr. Wood McKee have arrived at the Berkshire from Patterson, N. J.

Among those giving dinners at the Carolina the past week were Mr. Tracy Lewis, Mr. Travers, Mr. Noyes and Mr. W. A. Slater of Washington, D. C.

Mr. and Mrs. M. B. Johnson were guests of Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Truesdell at dinner at the Holly Inn on Wednesday, the 24th.

Judge E. F. Johnson, an old guest, from Woburn, and Wilford D. Gray, the Mayor of Woburn, Mass., arrived at the Berkshire Saturday night.

Mr. H. W. Campbell and P. S. Duryea are at The Cloverleaf.

Mr. Herron, father of the great golfer "Dave" Herron, is at The Holly Inn. We had hoped that Dave would be here too, but he is letting other things interfere with golf.

Mrs. Elkins, well-known in Philadelphia society, made a brief stay at the Carolina on her way North from Palm Beach. She is motoring to New York.

Mrs. W. W. Windle has arrived at The Holly Inn. She motored down from Milbury, Connecticut, to join her son and husband here for the balance of the season.

Dr. Kingsley of Rome, N. Y., who has been stopping with the P. C. Thomases and needs no introduction to Pinehurst