Ouimet his best match in the semi-finals Weber's favor on the 14th green. of the North and South, to run away with the President's Trophy by a score of 4 and 6 over Albert J. Mendes of Siwanoy. Gates, however, has the Au- F. H. Gates, Moore County tumn Tournament to his credit, and it C. B. Fownes, Oakmont would be too much for one man to win J. D. Chapman, Greenwich

The field that started out on the G. P. Elkins, Oakmont morning of the 13th was large and W. T. Stall, Brockton classy. There were over ninety players T. Morrison, Oakmont on hand, and when the opening struggle Donald Parson, Youngstown, was over and the strokes were all A. J. Mendes, Siwanoy counted, it was found that eighty men C. A. Taylor, La Porte had qualified for match play in five di- J. D. Armstrong, Buffalo visions of sixteen. The lowest score was F. S. Danforth, North Fork that of the aforesaid Gates, who made C. L. Becker, Ekwanok the outward trip in 36 and came home R. C. Shannon, Brockport in 38, with a total of 74. This was E. L. Scofield, Woodway four less than the record of C. B. A. T. Roberts, Royal St. George's Fownes, of Oakmont, who went out in H. C. Fownes, Oakmont 39 and came home in 39, for a total B. Preston, Westbrook of 78. No one else broke under 80. N. S. Hurd, Pittsburgh The medalist's card included one eagle, G. T. Dunlap, Pinehurst one birdie, eleven pars, four 1 over par, W. R. Peters, Santiago and one 2 over par.

The first match round in the first six- J. F. Holland, Indian Hill teen brought together Gates and Don- G. A. Magoon, Oakmontald Parson, of Youngstown, and the O. B. Garrott, Greenwich medalist barely escaped a beating. His T. A. Cheatham, Pittsburgh opponent held him on even terms up to H. C. Keith, Brockton the 18th, and took him two extra holes H. C. Philbrook, Brae Burn for a decision. Parson missed an eight H. A. Wilson, Knowlwood foot putt for a win at the nineteenth; R. Lounsbery, Sleepy Hollow Gates clinched the match on the 20th E. H. Wiswell, Montclair with a par four. Both had cards of B. F. Briggs, Ardsley

In the second round Gates and J. D. John Clinger, Baltusrol Chapman locked horns, and the medalist P. S. MacLaughlin, Ardsley succumbed in what proved to be the best M. B. Johnson, Cleveland match of the day. Gates came to the J. V. Hurd, Pittsburgh 18th with a 4 for a 74, but was one C. R. Corwin, Brae Burn down at that stage and lost the match G. A. Fuller, Runaway Brook in halving the last hole. Weber, who Jas. Barber, Englewood had disposed of C. B. Fownes, Oakmont, C. Duncan, Fox Hills in the first round, eliminated F. S. Dan- I. Hellman, Fairview forth in the second round. Danforth J. H. Turner, Fox Hills hastened his own defeat by knocking P. B. O'Brien, Detroit Weber's ball into the cup at the six- J. D. Rumsey, Pinehurst teenth hole. Surviving for the semi- H. A. Wrenn, Exmoor finals, together with Chapman and J. C. Bowen, Buffalo Weber, were Albert Mendes, who de- B. V. Covert, Lockport feated R. C. Shannon, 2 up, and E. L. A. M. Morris, Ardsley Scofield, who beat C. A. Taylor, of La Fred Cody, Dunwoodie Porte, Ind., 2 and 1.

The semi-finals produced two very A. S. Higgins, St. Andrews good matches, especially the one between W. B. Merrill, Brookline Chapman and Mendes. Mendes was the C. F. Conn, Merion victor, one up, and owed his victory Henry Patton, Runaway Brook to a stymie on one hole and two good H. E. Porter, Siwanoy putts on other holes, which he ran down Fred Hawthorne, New York from off the green. Chapman played T. H. Hogsett, Mayfield his last four holes in par figures and H. B. Swoope, Overbrook was denied the satisfaction of winning F. W. Filoon, Thorny Lea a single one of them.

Weber played brilliantly against Sco- F. B. Howland, Titusville field, going out in 33.

The match between Mendes and L. R. Gimbel, Philmont Weber in the finals was not very in- E. W. Bush, Southern Pines, teresting. Mendes demonstrated that he H. W. Ormsbee, Pinehurst will never make a successful match J. T. Newton, Pinehurst player. He is too nervous and im W. B. Stewart, Deleware patient. Weber allowed him only two F. F. Sivyer, Milwaukee

BY A MARGIN OF FOUR STROKES over holes in the first nine. Both players Lawrence Barr, Pittsburgh his nearest rival, Franklin Gates, of were repeatedly in the woods and in the N. A. Rose, Longwood Moore County, captured the Medal in bunkers. The issue of the match, how- R. L. Baggs, New York the Qualifying Round of the Mid-April ever, was never in doubt; it was Web- Jas.
