Big Spring Harness Race Won By David B.

With the course in excellent condition and the weather fit for a grand jubilee, two more track records fell before the onslaught of David B. and Molly O. at the weekly matinee of the Pinehurst Jockey Club.

David B., Wilson's gray gelding, driven by Wickert, was the stonewall Eden butted up against when he picked his Mittie Bedworth to capture the big end of the $250.00 purse in the chief event of the afternoon—the 2.12 pace. Together with Princess Ingomar, driven by Smith, all three were off well, Mittie Bedworth hugging the pole position. Wickert forced the issue right at the start and in the melee Mittie broke and the gray took the lead and the heat without further competition. It took a great deal of persuasion on the part of Mr. Shreve to get them started properly for the second heat, and after many attempts they were off. Before many yards had been traversed, Eden played his grand trump by dashing across the sisting of Viva McGee, Wright up, Ray, O-Light, Call up, and Russian Pinion, ridden by Miles. Little Horn made a good start and after a few strides was out in front. She seemed to revel in the good going and began to draw away from her company, leaving all three other horses struggling in the stretch. Near the home turn Wright came to a little understanding with Viva McGee and the mare began to run in earnest. For up the stretch she caught up with Little Horn and then began a furious finish to the wire. But Viva McGee had shot her bolt and Little Horn managed to hold the slight advantage of an inch or two over her rival.

Joe Milner made his debut on the Pinehurst track under new ownership when he raced in the five and one-half furlong flat flying the colors of Helen Waring. Four entries turned out for this event, but in the get-away Lyndonias lost her rider, which somewhat marred the start. Machese managed to get out track to head off the gray. He assumed the lead. Wickert was by no means through, however, and never for a moment did he leave the flank of the fast going Mittie and never for a moment could Eden widen the gap between the two. In the final dash down the home stretch he made one glorious attempt that brought the crowd to its feet, but lost out by a slight fraction.

The third and final heat was David B's from beginning to end. The gelding took the lead when they turned the first corner and set out like a house afire, to finish in the remarkable time of 2:12 1/4, which established a new track record.

Molly O. was another horse to join the record breaking squad, when she ran the six furlong flat in 1:14. Hustled into a good lead right at the start by Carter, she had no trouble in holding command throughout to win by a good margin from Wasseon.

As was expected, Little Horn won the seven furlong event from a field consisting of Viva McGee, Wright up, Ray, O-Light, Call up, and Russian Pinion, ridden by Miles. Little Horn made a good start and after a few strides was out in front. She seemed to revel in the good going and began to draw away from her company, leaving all three other horses struggling in the stretch. Near the home turn Wright came to a little understanding with Viva McGee and the mare began to run in earnest. For up the stretch she caught up with Little Horn and then began a furious finish to the wire. But Viva McGee had shot her bolt and Little Horn managed to hold the slight advantage of an inch or two over her rival.

Adelaide Guy, a three year old bay filly by Guy Axworthy, dam by Zombo, owned by J. W. Lanahan, South Weymouth, Mass., set out under the guidance of Fred Hyde to conquer the time of 2:28. The final result showed a victory in favor of the filly, which ran the mile in 2:19 1/4.

An added attraction was a match race between Fort Houston, Carter up, and Billy Oliver, Wright up, which the latter won quite handily in a driving finish.
