

Gorham Sterling Silver Trophies

The Fitting Tribute to Skill

A SILVER cup—to have and to hold through all the years—an everlasting reminder of great triumphs won.

In athletic sports, as in other forms of competition, silver is the accepted standard for acknowledgement of deeds well done.

Whether in the trophy room of a club, or in the dining room or den of a well-appointed home, it is the treasured symbol of permanency, good taste, and refinement.

Gorham Sterling Silverware is sold by leading jewelers everywhere, and in Pinehurst at "The Jewelry Store"

WHEN THE PAPER DOESN'T COME

My father says the paper he reads ain't put up right

He finds a lot of fault, he does, perusin' it all night.

He says there ain't a single thing in it worth while to read,

And that it doesn't print the kind of stuff the people need.

He tosses it aside and says it's strictly on the bum—

But you ought to hear him holler when the paper doesn't come!

He reads about the weddin's and he snorts like all git out;

He reads the social doin's with a most derisive shout.

He says they make the papers for the women folks alone.

He'll read about the parties and he'll fume and fret and groan;

He says of information it don't contain a crumb—

But you ought to hear him holler when the paper doesn't come!

He's always first to grab it and he reads it plumb clean through,

He doesn't miss an item or a want ad—that is true,

He says they don't know what we want, the darn newspaper guys,

I'm goin' to take a day sometime an' go and put 'em wise;

Sometimes it seems as though they must be deaf, some blind and dumb—

But you ought to hear him holler when the paper doesn't come!

"CHICK" FOWNES

The following article, written by "Mashie Niblick" and appearing in the golf column of the "Pittsburgh Leader" will be of interest to the Pinehurst friends of "Chick" Fownes. Chick is spending the winter at Pinehurst and has been displaying some excellent golf on the local courses.

Who is the greatest golfer in the world?

The average golf fan will answer Chick Evans, Bobby Jones, Francis Ouimet, Ted Ray, Harry Vardon, George Duncan, Walter Hagen and other golfers who shine on the golfing firmament.

The greatest golfer, all conditions being taken into consideration, physical handicaps and overcoming of obstacles which would deter and discourage the average golfer, is believed to be right here in Pittsburgh. And he is not Davy Herron, William C. Fownes, Jr., or Eben M. Byers, all three of whom have won the national amateur championships.

It is no other than Charles B. ("Chick") Fownes, of the Oakmont Country Club and a brother of William C. Fownes, one of the leading amateurs in America. Despite the fact that he suffered from a physical affliction he is a player of remarkable ability. He overcame almost insurmountable obstacles for his love of golf and today he is a great golfer.

Right now he is performing in sensational style down at Pinehurst, N. C., where he is wintering. His last appearance here in local competition was the final one-day tournament of the season, which was played over the Stanton Heights golf course, under the auspices of the Western Pennsylvania Golf association. He was the winner, turning in the best gross score.

"He is the greatest putter in the world," remarked Walter J. Travis, one of the leading golf authorities in this country and a former titleholder who has the distinction of being the only American to win the British amateur championship. This statement was made after watching "Chick" Fownes at several rounds of golf. He marveled at his being able to play with the great handicap he suffers from. "His playing is marvelous and I do not see how he is capable of the golf that he is."

Not alone is Chick Fownes a great putter, but he is a splendid driver, and gets good distance on his tee shots. He is also a fine iron shot player. The Oakmont is one of the golf veterans in this district, and he first started to play golf at the old Pittsburgh Field club course out on Braddock avenue. Afterwards when Oakmont was completed he played there. Chick was a member of the first golf team formed in this city. His case is an example of what perseverance and application will accomplish.

EMMET FRENCH WINS

First Money in Open Event

Emmet French, the Youngstown-Southern Pines professional who has been displaying such remarkable golf on the local courses this season, won first money in an all-professional tournament played on the Championship course at Pinehurst on Friday last with a score of 76. George Fotheringham was second at 77, and Harold Calloway, Buffalo, took third money at 80.

Fotheringham lost his opportunity to win when he took a 5 on the par 3 fifteenth. His tee shot was just off the edge of the green, but he missed his second and overran the cup trying to sink a long putt for a 3 and finally wound up with a 5. French and Fotheringham were all even playing the eighteenth hole. Both players were on the green in equal strokes and French ran down a ten-foot putt for a win.

Charles Hoffner, the Philmont star, took a 7 at the seventh hole which spoiled his chances, and he finished sixth at 82. Harold Calloway, the young Buffalo professional, was out in 37 and had an excellent chance to win, but he got into difficulties on the thirteenth and wound up with 43 for the return journey, and his score of 80 won him third money. Walter Howe took 43 for the outward trip but came home in 38, the best inward score of the field, and finished fifth at 81. Charles Mothersele scored 40-40—80 and drew down fourth money.

All of the players played from the back tees and had to play in the face of a strong wind. The field finished as follows:

Emmet French, Youngstown	36-40—76
George Fotheringham, N. Y.	36-41—77
Harold Calloway, Buffalo	37-43—80
Chas. Mothersele, Pinehurst	40-40—80
Walter Howe, Worcester	43-38—81
Chas. Hoffner, Philmont	40-42—82
Ralph Thomas, Boston	43-44—87
