The people of Manchuria are extravagantly fond of mirrors. The cigarette cases and purses carried by young men of the well-to-do class usually contain small mirrors, of which their owners make constant use, as do young women in our own country of glasses in vanity boxes.

AT Hotel McAlpin one may make delicious food the center of attraction, with music and dancing a secondary consideration--or one may revel in music and dancing with a delightful meal but a natural accompaniment. For, at the McAlpin, all three are beyond criticism.

THE ANNEX

NEW YORK

THE art of maintaining a large, modern hotel with its attendant advantages, and yet make its guests feel the intimacy of a real dwelling place, is perfected in the present management of The Annex.

Under the Direction of L. M. Boomer,
 Frank E. Jago, Resident Manager

32nd to 33rd Sts. and Broadway
