

VOSHELL BACK IN THE GAME AGAIN

Remarkable Entry List for the North and South Tennis Tournament at Pinehurst

BY E. A. DENHAM

S. Howard Voshell, the well-known tennis player who recently met with an automobile accident, writes from the hospital: "I certainly would not let a little thing like an automobile turning over keep me away from the North and South tennis tournament."

The women's field for the coming event, which officially opens the outdoor tennis season on April 11 - 16, includes many of the leading players of the country. Definite entries are already in from Mrs. Molla Bjurstedt Mallory, Miss Marion Zinderstein, and Miss Edith Sigourney of Boston, Miss Florence Ballin, Miss Gerrude Della Torre and Mrs. S. Fullerton Weaver of New York, Mrs. de Forest Candee, Miss Bertha Sexton, Mrs. Theodora Sohst and Mrs. Mabel Straffin of Brooklyn, and from Philadelphia's leading trio, Miss Anne Townsend, Miss Phyllis Walsh and Miss Mollie Thayer.

The men's field is equally strong and includes Ichiya Kumagae, and Beals Wright, who are paired for the doubles, Vincent Richards, Craig Biddle, Harold Throckmorton and other ranking players.

The Yale Tennis Team is due at Pinehurst on March 25th for a series of practice and exhibition matches during the Easter holidays.

FAMOUS DOGS ENTERED

For the Annual Dog Show At Pinehurst, April 7-8

BY E. A. DENHAM

Several of the country's leading champion shepherds and greyhounds have been entered for the annual A. K. C. Show to be held at Pinehurst on April 7 - 8, and the indications are that when the entries close on March 25th the list, so far as class of entrants is concerned, will make the show the most important one that has ever been held in the south.

The latest entries among the Poms include Mrs. O. E. Lakeland's Pioneer Wee Blackie, a champion of champions for which Mrs. Lakeland paid $5,000. Wee Blackie and his mate, Champion Miss Stoker, won their championships at the Waldorf, in 1917, against a field of 157 dogs and have not been beaten since. Their owner is the only exhibitor whose dogs of the same breed ever won two championships on the same day.

Other Poms entered within the last few days include Mrs. A. Marie Lyon's Champion Lady Skylark and her brother, Chief Skylark, both descended from Champion Wee Blackie and accorded best in show on a number of recent occasions.

One of the most interesting of the latest Pekingese entries is Mrs. Sydney Franc's Champion Glen Iris Dai-Du, America's youngest Pekingese champion, which won her championship in November last at the age of 15 months!

COMMUNITY HOUSE Funds Needed to Pay Off Debt

There is a debt of $1,350.00 on the Community House which the trustees are anxious to pay by April first.

The building is used for Sunday School in the morning and preaching services each Sunday evening.

The Presbyterian Church, organized last June, has charge of the services the first and third Sunday evenings.

Rev. Mr. Cheatham very generously gives his services the other Sunday evenings.

The only revenue from the building is the rental paid by the Woodmen of the World for the upper hall, and the rent paid by the Presbyterian Church.

For several years Mrs. Tufts has collected clothing for rummage sales which have helped on the interest payments. The rents and evening offerings pay the running expenses and insurance, but do not help on the debt or repairs.

The Trustees would appreciate any contribution.
