THE TIN WHISTLES Vs Bogey

Thirty-eight Tin Whistles divided themselves into three classes for their mass attack against Bogey on the Number 2 course. John D. Chapman led the field in the first division and wound up four strokes to the good for the Class A prize. Donald Parson came in second, at three up, while C. B. Fownes, D. R. Meigs and J. R. Bowker split even with the Colonel's figures. The remainder of the division were from 1 to 9 down.

Henry B. Swoope carried off the honors in Class B. with 90-16-74 which placed him 4 up, while 88-22-66 won the Class C. prize for W. B. Merrill. Chapman and Parson tied, at 78, for the best gross score of the day.

OLD FRIENDS MEET

In the course of the Surgical Association which met at Pinehurst during the week past, Mrs. F. E. Butler (Annie Oakley) had the pleasure of meeting again Dr. Edward Ill, of Newark N. J., the surgeon who attended Mrs. Butler in her illness incident to a terrible accident she suffered in a railroad wreck nineteen years ago. Mrs. Butler was then at the height of her career as the world's greatest rifle shot, and Dr. Ill's prediction that she would never be able to shoot again was most disheartening. But fortune was good to Mrs. Butler and at this last meeting she produced records showing that she had participated in just exactly 1407 exhibitions since then, and further proved her marvelous skill and vitality by entertaining Dr. Ill and other members of the association with a shooting exhibition at the Gun club in which she executed some of her old-time stunts with her usual ease and grace.

POSTAL SAVINGS

Official announcement has been received by Postmaster Henry R. Vroom, of Pinehurst, N. C. of the joining of hands of the Post Office and Treasury Departments for the encouragement of the savings movement. The plan, as explained in a statement sent out by Secretary of the Treasury Mellon, provides for the stimulation of the savings habit by the acceptance of Postal Savings deposits from 10 cents up and the offering of Treasury Savings Securities from $1 to $1,000.

There will be no Thrift Stamps nor War Savings Stamps offered during 1922, but all outstanding Thrift and War Savings Stamps will be redeemable precisely upon the terms upon which they were purchased, it is announced.

For the better coordination of the Postal and Treasury plans all who invest in Postal Savings may convert their deposits, when sufficiently large, into Treasury Savings Securities yielding 4 1/2 per cent interest, compounded semi-annually if held to maturity.

Further, the limit of individual holdings of Treasury Savings Securities has been increased from $1,000 to $5,000 and the 1921 issues of three of the securities bear the portraits of three great Americans — Roosevelt, Lincoln and Washington.
