26th Season

THE CAROLINA H. W. PRIEST, Mgr.
Private baths, sleeping porches, elevators, sun parlors, telephones in every room. Special early season rates.

PRINCELY ENTERTAINMENT has been the synonym for everything desirable from time out of mind. The monarchs of old were royally attended, but they experienced not half the luxury and comfort that Pinehurst guests accept as a matter of course.

The entire globe contributes its best to the generously spread tables. Nothing needful for physical ease is neglected. Not untutored slaves, but thinking, well-trained free men and women give intelligent and willing care to the pleasure of those they serve. And where will more varied and delightful entertainment be found, indoors or out?

The orderly comfort and silent perfection of service for which Pinehurst hotels are famous are the cumulative result of thought given by everyone connected with the Pinehurst organization for the pleasure and comfort of each guest as an individual. So PINEHURST has become the synonym for a superlative luxury and pleasure of which the originator of PRINCELY ENTERTAINMENT never dreamed.

Under one management:
HOLLY INN — E. G. FITZGERALD, Mgr. — BERKSHIRE

The Holly Inn: Every convenience; pleasantly located, liberally conducted.

The Berkshire: A house of quiet friendliness and restful comfort.

CHAPMAN AND PARSON LEAD TIN WHISTLES

J. D. Chapman and Donald Parson led the field in the Tin Whistles' four-ball best-ball vs par match played on Number 2 course on Monday of this week, with a best ball of 69 and finished 3 up on the par figures. Chapman's 36-39-75 was the best individual round of the day and included birdies on the first and sixth holes. Parson was 37-39-76 with a birdie on the fourteenth.

A tie for second place resulted between R. S. Tufts paired with H. J. Blue, and W. T. Barr paired with H. G. White, both pairs finishing even with par. The remaining eighteen pairs were unable to equal or better the given figures, and finished from 1 to 14 down.

Did you tackle that trouble that came your way
With a resolute heart and cheerful?
Or hide your face from the light of day
With a craven soul and fearful?
Oh, a trouble's a ton, or a trouble's an ounce,
Or a trouble is what you make it;
And it isn't the fact that you're hurt that counts,
But only, how did you take it?
