

The
BELLEVUE-STRATFORD
Philadelphia

When the discriminating traveler thinks "Philadelphia" instinctively comes the mental echo "Bellevue Stratford." It is the personification of what a guest has a right to expect in a great hotel of to-day.

Notes of the Week

The prize winners at the Monday morning card party at the Carolina were Mrs. G. M. Howard of Pinehurst, Mrs. W. E. Overton of New York, Mrs. H. G. White of Ridgewood, N. J., and Mrs. C. G. Bartlette of Buenos Aires, Argentine.

The holidays have been full of merry parties for both young and younger. On Saturday last Mrs. Evelyn P. Spencer planned a picnic in McKenzie's woods. A large party went on horse-back while others filled the Tally-ho and automobiles. A fire was built, coffee made and baskets full of good things were unpacked and eaten with the zest of real picnic appetites. As they left the Carolina we saw among the party Mrs. F. E. Long of Detroit, Mrs. Evelyn P. Spencer, Misses Aillinn Leffingwell, Ann Banker, Virginia Burrage, Jeannette and Theo Johnson, Katherine and Louise Way, Ann Merrill, Clarissa Metcalf, Helen Curtis, Louise Emery, Elizabeth Cheatham, Frances Thomas and Irene Jonas, and Messrs. Richard Stillwell, Glen Covert, Ellis Heath, Henry Swoope and Francis Harrison.

A dance for the Juniors was a delightful affair at the Carolina on Monday evening, to which there came many well-known young folk from the Cottage colony, hotels and country-side. A Lucky Number contest was a feature of the evening, the winners being Miss Ann Banker, house guest of Mr. and Mrs. H. W. Priest, and Mr. C. J. Henderson of Reno, Nevada. "Cutting in" was permitted as a special favor for this dance, making more than the usual amount of fun.

Mrs. I. S. Robeson entertained at auction this week in honor of her house guest, Mrs. John Cavanaugh of Rochester, N. Y. There were two tables at which played Mrs. Cavanaugh, Mrs. Robeson, Mrs. W. B. Merrill and Mrs. G. M. Howard. At the other table were Mrs. Austin Heath, Miss Luey Priest, Mrs. Francis T. Keating and Mrs. L. C. Beall. Mrs. Howard and Mrs. Beall were the prize winners at their respective tables.

A large party of the young folk, eager for the hunt, left the Carolina on Friday morning last in search of B'er Fox. After a long and unsuccessful run the party turned their faces homeward, when the dogs picked up the scent and were off in full cry with the entire field hard after them. Miss Nancy Cope of Philadelphia, was first on the scene and won the brush. In the party were Mr. Pope Yeatman, Miss Georgina Yeatman and Mr. Pope Yeatman Jr., Phila, Mr. Harrison of Montclair, N. J., Mr. and Mrs. R. D. Hunneman of Cambridge, Mass., Mr. Russell Grinnell of Providence Richard Stillwell of Lakewood, N. J. Wellington Henderson and Richard Magee, Nevada, Mrs. L. F. F. Wanner, Miss Jeannette Johnson, Mr. Phillip Johnson and Miss Evelyn P. Spencer, all of Pinehurst.

On Tuesday evening, December 27, Mr. and Mrs. Leonard Tufts entertained at a dance at the Country Club in honor of their guests, Mrs. Frank Winchester and her daughter, Miss Patience Winchester, who is spending her Christmas recess in Pinehurst from Smith College. It was a representative gathering of about a hundred guests from the residents of the village, hotels and country-side. After two hours dancing, screens were withdrawn revealing a buffet supper which was a joy to see and a delight to taste. It was difficult to leave at midnight after an evening of such friendly frolic. Besides the host and hostess and guests of honor were Mr. and Mrs. Roger Derby, Mr. and Mrs. George Maurice and family, Mr. and Mrs. Francis T. Keating and Miss Clarissa Metcalf, Mr. and Mrs. Benj. F. Butler and Mr. Snow, Mr. and Mrs. R. S. Lovering, Mr. and Mrs. John A. Tuckerman, Dr. and Mrs. Myron W. Marr and Miss Virginia Burrage, Mr. and Mrs. R. D. Hunneman, Mr. and Mrs. W. B. Merrill, Miss Ann Merrill and Mr. and Mrs. John E. Fowler, Mr. and Mrs. H. H. Johnson, the Misses Jeannette and Theo Johnson and Mr. Phillip Johnson, Mr. and Mrs. H. G. Waring, Mr. Howard Phillips and Miss Caroline Bogart, Mr. and Mrs. Ralph W. Page, H. J. Blue and Mr. and Mrs. Frank Dudgeon, Mr. and Mrs. I. S. Robeson and their guests Mr. and Mrs. John Cavanaugh, Rev. and Mrs. T. A. Cheatham and Miss Elizabeth Cheatham, Mr. and Mrs. James Boyd, the Misses Katherine and Louise Way and Captain A. Loftus Bryan, Mr. and Mrs. E. S. Scofield, Mr. and Mrs. H. B. Emery and Miss Louise Emery, Mr. and Mrs. Jay V. Hall, Mr. and Mrs. Raphael Pumpelly and Mr. and Mrs. Ripley, Mr. and Mrs. George M. Howard, Mr. and Mrs. Bird, Mrs. Trumbull Dana and Mr. Paul Dana, Mr. and Mrs. Hewlett and Messrs. Jack Latting, John Chickering, William Green, Hugh Carter, Glen Covert, Richard Croft, Ellis Heath, Ned Beall, Lawrence Forsyth, Mr. MacClanahan and Richard, Albert and James Tufts.

The annual Christmas tree and dance for the children was held in the Ball Room of the Carolina on Saturday afternoon, December 24, and a large number of expectant youngsters gathered to see what Santa had hung on the tree for them. A noble tree glittered with lights and tinsel. The Carolina orchestra played for the dancing feet of the children until 4:30, when they all tramped into the dining room where refreshments were served at a table over which Santa himself presided, pack and all. From the merry din that arose from the horns and whistles, shouts of glee and dancing feet one knew it had been a most happy party.
