

R. S. TUFTS WINS CLASS A PRIZE IN TIN WHISTLES TOURNEY

The Class A prize in a selected holes tourney held by the Tin Whistles on Monday last, in which 37 players compared notes on their best six holes in each nine, was won by Richard S. Tufts. Richard played with the aid of his club handicap of 4 strokes, and negotiated six holes going out in 21 and six coming home in 19 for a winning total of 40 for the twelve holes.

H. G. Phillips carried off the low net honors of the day with a round of 73, but the best twelve holes he could muster gave him 19 going out and 22 coming home for second place, at 41.

P. S. Maclaughlin, handicap 8, won the Class B prize with 46 for his best

B. V. Covert
H. G. Waring
L. D. Pierce
W. C. Fownes
J. S. Brown
H. C. Fownes
P. B. O'Brien

Class C

James Barber
W. B. Merrill
E. J. Barber
C. W. Harman
G. A. Magoon
C. B. Hudson
J. T. Newton
J. L. Toppin
H. H. Rackham
J. D. C. Rumsey
H. W. Ormsbee
C. F. Dow

27-22-49 Mrs. G. M. Howard and
24-25-49 Mrs. A. S. Gilman 115-15-100
24-26-50
23-27-50
21-29-50 Mrs. J. D. Armstrong and
23-28-51 Mrs. L. F. F. Wanner 108-6-102
25-27-52

Mrs. B. V. Covert and
21-24-45 Mrs. D. J. Ross 126-24-102
23-23-46
23-24-47 Mrs. L. C. Beall and
23-26-49 Miss Caroline Bogart 126-16-110
25-25-50
24-26-50
22-28-50 Mrs. G. A. Magoon and
28-23-51 Mrs. A. S. Higgins 129-16-113
26-26-52
29-24-53 Miss Louise Emery and
27-28-55 Mrs. H. H. Rackham 134-8-126
29-32-61

HOLLY INN OPENS WITH FAMILIAR ROLL CALL

Old friends returning to the Holly Inn very largely made up the list of those on hand for the opening of that popular and home-like hotel on Tuesday, January 10. Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Gallup of Syracuse, N. Y., who have spent a number of winters in Pinehurst were among the first to register, as were Mr. and Mrs. John L. Toppin, Mr. and Mrs. Wm. E. Truesdell, Mr. and Mrs. G. W. Dodd, Mrs. W. H. Purdy, Mrs. Joseph Bydolek, O. A. Blackman, and Dr. and Mrs. J. B. McMahon, all of whom are here for their annual visit.

The day's arrivals include Charles M. Thorpe, Charles M. Thorpe, Jr., and Miss Jessie Thorpe from Pittsburg; Mrs. A. M. Farley and Miss Claire Farley, dozen, and James Barber, handicap 14, led the higher handicap division, at 45, and took down the Class C prize.

Members of the Winter Golf League of Advertising Interests lost no time in shaking their clubs over the links. This group shows the arrival of the first contingent at the club to witness the President, H. R. Reed, (extreme right) drive a $5 gold piece, in form of a golf ball, for the caddies to scramble for.

The three classes finished as follows:

Class A
R. S. Tufts 21-19-40
H. G. Phillips 19-22-41
W. E. Truesdell 19-27-46
C. B. Fownes 20-26-46
F. T. Keating 22-24-46
A. E. Ranney 24-22-46
R. C. Shannon, 2nd 23-24-47
J. D. Chapman 22-26-48
Donald Parson 23-25-48
H. B. Swoope 25-24-49
H. B. Lewis 23-29-52
H. J. Blue 26-28-54

Class B
P. S. Maclaughlin 22-24-46
T. A. Cheatham 24-23-47
A. S. Higgins 24-23-47
G. M. Howard 23-24-47
Lorenzo Daniels 23-25-48
J. R. Bowker 25-24-49

SILVER FOILS PLAY BEST-BALL FOURSOMES

Mrs. Herman Ellis of Walton Heath, England, and Mrs. J. D. Hathaway of Montreal, won the Silver Foils' best-ball tournament played on Thursday of this week. Their 101-7-94 won the prize for low gross and also low net. Mrs. F. T. Keating, Pinehurst, and Mrs. Myron W. Marr, played with a handicap 7, and finished second at 106-7-99. Mrs. G. M. Howard, Pinehurst, and Mrs. A. S. Gilman, Cleveland, were third, at 115-15-100.

Eight pairs played and finished as follows:

24-23-47 Mrs. Herman Ellis and
24-23-47 Mrs. J. D. Hathaway 101-7-94
23-24-47
23-25-48 Mrs. F. T. Keating and
25-24-49 Mrs. Myron W. Marr 106-7-99

TOM BOYD GETS A 69

On Championship Course

Tom Boyd, professional of the Fox Hills Club, cut loose with a 69 over the Number 2 course on Thursday of this week, which included birdies on the first, fifth, eighth, fourteenth and seventeenth holes. Boyd's fine round was made in the course of a match in which he and John Golden of Tuxedo, defeated Cyril Walker and Donald Parson, 6 and 4. Boyd and Golden had a best ball of 51-35-66, as against 34-35-69 for Walker and Parson.

Hardly a Subject for Inspiration

"How times have changed!"
"Yes?"
"Imagine Rosa Bonheur painting a flock of Ford tractors." — Florida Times-Union.

Greenwich, Conn.; Mrs. Marie S. Farley, New York; Mrs. D. B. Cooper, Syracuse; Mr. and Mrs. W. O. Henry, Annapolis, Md.; Mr. and Mrs. F. W. Kennedy, Springfield, Mass.; Mr. and Mrs. H. B. Loomis, New Haven, Conn.; Mr. and Mrs. G. P. Lemont, Philadelphia; Mr. and Mrs. Wm. T. Barr, Deering Harbor, N. Y.; Carl H. Anderson, New York; Tom Boyd, New York; George F. Fosdick, Arlington, Mass.; Earl Shaw and Seth Brady, Camden, S. C.

Overheard: "Yus! an' I says to 'im: 'You shove any more water in my milk an' I'll tike it down ter the Town' All an' 'ave it paralyzed by the local Anarchist.'" — Pearson's Weekly, London.

Madge—"Mine is the last word in bathing suits."

Marjorie—"You wouldn't think so if you heard all that was being said about it."