KIRKWOOD COMING TO PINEHURST

A warm welcome will be accorded Joseph H. Kirkwood, open golf champion of Australia, when he returns to Pinehurst for the North and South open championship. Kirkwood will sail from Australia on February 24 and arrive in America in time to participate in the North and South at Pinehurst.

Few champion athletes who have come to America have been as popular as Joe Kirkwood. He came to the United States last season, accompanied by Victor East, a very likable chap and these partners traveled through this country, Great Britain and France, always bringing credit to Australia.

They are fine sportsmen and Kirkwood is a master golfer. He had as fine an average as any professional in the world last year, when his showing in championship fields in America, Great Britain and France are taken into the counting and this despite the fact that he had never played away from Australia before last year. Kirkwood is a dangerous competitor in any field.

He is known as a trick shot player and is capable of giving a very entertaining exhibition of useful as well as trick shots. A Pinehurst gallery was so pleased with Kirkwood's exhibition last season that it presented him with a purse of more than $500. He finished in the money in the North and South and until the open championship at Washington was a money winner in every start he made, which included the British and French opens.

In the big match play tournament held at Glen Eagles, Scotland, Kirkwood defeated Harry Vardon and other prominent players and was the runner-up to Abe Mitchell in the finals. Mitchell was forced to do two of his most brilliant rounds in order to beat Kirkwood by a narrow margin.

It is likely that Kirkwood will make a permanent home in the United States and he will be a great addition to the professional ranks and a credit to the game.

Mrs. Smith stepped into a little store at the corner to purchase seven-eighths of a yard of oil cloth. Mrs. Cohen, the storekeeper's better half, waited upon Mrs. Smith. Poor Mrs. Cohen, after puzzling a bit over the seven-eighths, stepped to the back of the store and called: "Papa, vat is seven-eighths? Mrs. vants dat much by the oil cloth." The answer came back promptly: "Mamma, tell her we hain't got dat; she bedder take a yard unt a quarter."

Alice: Gladys is an expert gossip.
Virginia: Tells everything?
Alice: No—knows just what to leave out.

I do not care for them;
They don't sound as they used to

The tired-looking commuter shook his head sadly.
"Yes," he added to his but half-interested fellow-travelers, "she was good, as cooks go, and as cooks go, she went!"
