

R. MURRAY PURVES WINS ADVERTISERS' TOURNEY

(Concluded from last Issue)

ing round, which was published in an Atlantic City newspaper. They wired him:

"Your score — 115; for the good of your city, come home at once."

Mr. Leeds proceeded to win two matches the following day and then won the third round and felt that after making such a fine showing at match play he would answer the telegram as follows:

"Am getting some real publicity for Atlantic City now."

There was one unfortunate accident during the tournament when a stout member drove just to the far edge of the pond at the tenth hole on the Number 2 course. He had to take a stance close to the water and as he made his swing he fell backwards into the pool. As no penalty was attached, he stated that he was glad it had been himself and not his ball that got into the water hazard.

On qualifying day it was noted that James Barber had a gross score two lower than his son, E. J. Barber, and that Mrs. Thomas Wright in the woman's championship, had a gross score two shots lower than that returned by her son, T. H. Wright, who played in the Advertisers' qualifying round.

Another amusing incident occurred when a mix-up on the score board sent James Barber and E. J. Barber out to play against wrong opponents. After striving their hardest to come in with a victory the error was discovered, but as there was no time in which to replay the matches it was decided that the only thing to be done would be to match cards, so the four interested parties sat down and played their matches all over in the club house. It was found that one loser had really been a winner, and one winner had really been a loser.

On Friday night the annual banquet was held and it was the usual lively affair. Roy Durstine, the new president, made a few remarks and predicted that next year there would be a larger turnout than ever. He favors the League making an effort to obtain new members and working for a record attendance at Pinehurst next year. The New Yorkers are very anxious to find some golfers who are eligible to join the association and are good enough players to give Purves a match, for this is the second time the Woodland golfer has won the title.

There were many special events:

Mr. and Mrs. W. L. Wurzburg of Sleepy Hollow won the mixed foursome with a score of 107-25-82, and Mrs. Joseph Bydolek of Buffalo and H. Bradford Lewis of North Andover, were second with 95-9-86. This was the lowest gross score.

Max Landay, Woodmere, L. I., won the eighteen hole medal play tournament with 104-37-67, and F. L. Wurzburg was second with 89-18-71. Third place went to C. E. Murnan, Common-wealth, with 90-18-72.

The driving contest was won by C. J. Wright of Siwanoy, who hit one 210 yards. The special contest of driving from in front of the Carolina Hotel and holing out at the eighteenth green on No. 2 course was won by Dr. A. R. Gardner of Siwanoy, who was 16. W. H. Hamilton of Bridgeport, was second with 18.

The men's putting contest was won by W. E. Conklyn of Dunwoodie with a total of 21 for the four corners, and Mrs. Lorenzo Daniels of Westchester, won in the woman's putting contest after a play off with Mrs. A. S. Higgins of St. Andrews. Mrs. Daniels was 24 and Mrs. Higgins 26.
