Pinehurst Field Trials

The fifth annual Field Trials, under the auspices of the Pinehurst Field Trial Club, started with the Membership Stake on Monday last and continued through Friday with the Derby and Free for All events. Mr. L. E. Seay of Charlotte, N. C., and Mr. G. H. Wall of Jacksonville, Fla., were the judges.

In the Membership Stake, Kirk's Mainside Beau and Kirk's Ashantee Dominant, both owned and handled by Harry D. Kirkover, were first and second respectively, and Pinehurst Bill, owned and handled by Leonard Tufts, was third.

The dogs ran in this event as follows:

FIRST SERIES

Pinehurst Bill, lemon and white pointer dog, owned and handled by Leonard Tufts; Maribelle Llewellyn, owned and handled by P. H. Powel.

These dogs were put down on a bad, thick course and Bill made two good covey finds.

Raps Classy Cute, liver and white pointer bitch, owned and handled by Dr. J. S. Brown; Kirk's Siasconset, blue Belton, ticked with tan, owned by H. D. Kirkover.

Cute made a good find and went out wide enough for the country she was in.

Pinehurst Boveis, liver, white and ticked pointer dog, owned and handled by Leonard Tufts; Stylish Manitoba Pat, white and black pointer dog, handled by P. H. Powel, owned by G. M. Robertson.

Pat has a nice way of going but was unfortunate in not finding birds. Boveis, a pup, was evidently not acquainted with his handler and didn't get out.

Jackson's Speedy, white, lemon and ticked, owned by E. A. Watson, handled by H. D. Kirkover.

Preacher's Mack, white and lemon English setter dog, owned and handled by P. H. Powel.

Speedy was a good going dog but was handicapped by not finding any birds and by the fact that Preacher's Mack was lost two or three minutes after he was put down and was not found again until the afternoon.

Kirk's Ashantee Dominant, white, liver and ticked pointer dog, owned and handled by H. D. Kirkover.

Denwood Leta Ferris, white and lemon pointer bitch, owned and handled by P. H. Powel.

These dogs both have a wonderful speed and range, and Dominant made a splendid impression. He made a good find with lots of style but Leta Ferris who backed was not steady.

Belmont Frank, liver and white pointer dog, owned and handled by Dr. J. S. Brown.

Kirk's Master's Boy, white blue ticked English setter dog, owned and handled by H. D. Kirkover.

These were put down in an open country and Frank went out especially well.

Neither dog found birds although there were birds put up on the course by the riders.

Kirk's Mainside Beau, black and white English setter dog, owned and handled by H. D. Kirkover.

Denwood Nancy Danstone, blue Belton English setter bitch, owned and handled by P. H. Powel.

Nancy was off the course more or less but Mainside Beau had a beautiful find and handled his birds well. He had fair range and speed and is a very attractive dog.

SECOND SERIES

Rap's Classy Cute,
Pinehurst Bill,

Cute didn't get out as well as he did in the first series. Bill got out of hand and was lost for some time and afterward Cute turned up missing. Neither of these dogs made as good an impression as in the first series.

Maribelle Llewellyn,
Ashantee Dominant.
Dominant went well and had a covey find to his credit.

Mainside Beau,
Stylish Manitoba Pat.
Beau went very wide and fast. He showed up as far as hunting qualities are concerned, much better in the second series than he did in the first, and he handled a scattered covey very well.

The judges then placed Kirk's Mainside Beau first, Kirk's Ashantee Dominant second, and Pinehurst Bill third.

Upon completion of the Membership Stake the Derby was started, and of the eighteen dogs in the Derby the following were taken into the second series:

- Long's Dugal
- Boatwright's Bimpkins Jack
- Fieldale Flush
- Ninis Camper
- Great Island Undaunted
- Great Island Roy Flush
- Deep River Molly

The final placing was:

1. Great Island Undaunted, owned by Wm. Zeigler of New York, and handled by Alex Bulla, Trinity, N. C.
2. Boatwright's Bimpkins Jack, owned by E. V. Boatwright, and handled by W. J. Dennis of Durham, N. C.
3. Deep River Molly, owned by Deep River Kennels, Jamestown, N. C., and handled by Edward Armstrong.

In the Free-for-All event on Thursday six dogs were selected to run in the second series the following day, but on account of unfavorable weather conditions it was decided by the judges and owners to let three winners be decided on the previous day's performances.
