THE DOG SHOW

Ch. Rosemont Sun Burst Best in Show

The fourth annual A. K. C. Show held at Pinehurst on Monday and Tuesday of this week had an entry list of 240 dogs and 350 entries in 124 classes, and from the point of sporting dogs eclipsed any show ever held in America. The show permitted of five championship points in seven different breeds as follows: American Fox Hounds, English Setters, Pointers, Beagles, West Highland White Terriers, Shepherd dogs and Chow Chows.

The show was particularly notable for its entry of sporting dogs. More than 100 dogs were shown in the Pointers, English Setters and American Fox Hounds classes alone which is the largest aggregate entry that was ever made for these three classes in any show held in this country, and the exhibitors represented some of the country's foremost kennels. There was an unusual representation of Chows, Poms and Shepherd dogs.

Champion Rosemont Sun Burst, owned and entered by Mrs. B. F. Lewis, Jr., of Lansdowne, Pa., was adjudged best in show. This beautiful greyhound is a son of Champion Lansdowne Sunflower, a winner of best in shows three years in succession at Pinehurst, and has received the same distinction at no less than fifty shows throughout America. Best of opposite sex was awarded to Champion Lansdowne Prairie Belle, a Pointer owned by R. F. Maloney. The trophy given by Mr. Harry D. Kirkover for the best sporting dog owned by a legal resident of North Carolina was won by May Danstone, an English Setter owned by P. H. Powel of Denton, N. C.

FAMOUS DOGS ENTERED

One of the sensations of the show was Glad Jack, an English Setter owned by Mrs. Joseph N. Pew, Jr., of Ardmore, Pa. This dog easily won first in his class and is not only a fine bench dog but is thoroughly broken in the field. His owner refused $2,000.00 for him. Greenacre Li Ping Tow, a Chow, won his championship here and is undefeated. He is considered the best dog ever imported to America. Champion Lansdowne Prairie Belle, winner of best of opposite sex, has done more winning on the bench than any Pointer in America, and has won best of all breeds at fifteen different shows. Champion Rosemont Kamerad 2d, is the champion of all Badger dogs in this country and has never been defeated. Mrs. Sidney

CHAPMAN and YATES LEAD QUALIFIERS IN ANNUAL

St. Valentine's Tournament

The lowest scoring ever recorded in an amateur tournament in Pinehurst was done in the qualifying round of the annual St. Valentine's, when eight players returned cards under 80 and more than twenty were under 90. It required a score of 84 or better to make the first sixteen. There were 140 starters.

Arthur Yates of the Oak Hill club of Rochester and John D. Chapman of Greenwich, tied for the medal with fine rounds of 71. Yates was 36-35-71 and Chapman 35-36-71. E. L. Seofield of Pinehurst was 37-36-73 and A. L. Walker, Jr., Richmond County, former Interecollegiate champion, 39-37-76. The course was heavy and it was possible to pitch at the pin, the balls holding on the damp sand greens.

The first division is the strongest to ever compete in the St. Valentine's event, with a number of the members of the Pinehurst cottage colony groupe eager to prevent an outsider from taking off the winner's prize in the first division. Yates, Walker and Donald Parson of Youngstown, were the favorites.

In obtaining a 71 in the qualifying round Yates had seven 3's on his card and one 7, the high figure coming at the long seventh hole where he put his third into a trap which guards the front approach to the green and took two to get out. A 5 at the par thirteenth was due to a trap. Chapman took a 6 on the seventh and a 5 on the thirteenth, but otherwise was par or better at every hole.

The low cards were:

Yates:

Out — 353 453 733—36
In — 443 534 444—35—71

Chapman:

Out — 444 443 633—35
In — 444 543 534—36—71

Seofield:

Out — 444 444 544—37
In — 444 553 434—36—73

W. E. Truesdell of Garden City, the Senior player, qualified in the first division with an 82, but had an opportunity to be much lower, going out in 39 and finishing with a 7 at the sixteenth, a two at the seventeenth and an 8 at the eighteenth. James Daly of New York, went out in 41 and only needed the par 4 at the home hole for an 84, but he missed everything coming up the fairway and took an 8.

Owen Moore, of the Westchester-Biltmore club, the motion-picture actor,
