

MISS ELIZABETH GORDON KNOW NORTH CAROLINA

Leads Qualifiers in Women's St. Valentine's

Miss Elizabeth Gordon, a member of the Metacomet Club, Providence, and four times winner of the Rhode Island championship, won the medal in the qualifying round of the annual St. Valentine's Tournament for Women with a score of 48-46-94. Mrs. John D. Chapman of Greenwich, was second with 49-48-97, and Mrs. Joseph Bydolek of Buffalo, finished three strokes behind, at 53-47-100.

Fifty-three participants took part in the qualifying round and were divided into divisions of eight for match play. Miss Gordon is the favorite in the first division, although Mrs. Chapman has played many low rounds on the Pinehurst links and is considered to have a fine chance. The draw for match play in the first division placed these ladies on opposite sides, and it is very likely that they will meet in the finals.

Mrs. Frank S. Danforth of North Fork, heads the second division players with 55-55-110, while Mrs. F. H. Mahan, St. Davids, and Mrs. C. S. Waterhouse, Ardsley, lead the third and fourth divisions respectively.

Just Keep on Doing It

"North Carolina in 1921 stands with the leaders agriculturally, with a rank of fourth in the 22 leading crops, and fifth in the value of all crops." So says Statistician Frank Parker.

"With a total value of $228,900,000 for the field crops, North Carolina has only Texas, Illinois, and Iowa surpassing her, while in the aggregate value of all crops we surpass Iowa, but let California and New York ahead. The fruit crops are responsible for these two states getting up front.

"North Carolina produced last year more than four per cent of the value of all crops in the United States, yet she has only 1.6 per cent of the improved farm area of the Union."

The state crop values for 1921 were as follows:

1 Cotton	$74,212,000
2 Tobacco	67,600,000
3 Corn	38,416,000
4 Hay	14,077,000
5 Sweet potatoes	9,992,000
6 Irish potatoes	5,788,000
7 Soy beans	4,169,000
8 Sorghum	2,364,000
9 Oats	2,142,000
10 Cowpeas	1,983,000
11 Peaches	1,513,000
12 Apples	1,482,000

No wonder Commissioner W. A. Graham on contemplating this gratifying result declares: "North Carolina is in the same position as the young negro who thought the Ku Klux were after him and was fleeing from them. In his flight he met Uncle Ephraim and said, while still gasping for breath, 'Uncle Ephraim, the Ku Klux are after me! What shall I do?' Uncle Ephraim said, 'You are doing all right; just keep on doing it!'"

JOHN EBBERTS WINS THE SHOOT

John Ebberts of Buffalo, was the high gun in the weekly 100-target handicap tournament with a score of 86-12-98. Norwood Johnston of Pittsburg, was second, at 92-4-96, and John W. Myers of Dedham, Mass., was third, at 73-20-93. Johnston's 92 was the best gross target of the day. Walter Hagen deserted the links to take part in this event, but did not display quite the accuracy that he does with a golf club.

The leading scores were:

John Ebberts, Buffalo	86-12-98
Norwood Johnston, Pittsburg	92-4-96
John W. Myers, Dedham	73-20-93
John J. Krueger, Newark	64-25-89
Walter Hagen, Detroit	73-10-83
Hardy Bush, Jr., Newark	54-25-79

MONEY GETTING EASIER

The financial reports note the increasing ease of money in the big cities, but the folks who have money in the bank find that it is easy almost any time.

It is worth the effort, no matter how hard the effort may be, to have money in the bank. The ease of getting money if you have it there offsets the difficulty of getting it there. Then the
