

GOLFERS

Tennis, Base Ball and Foot Ball Players use

ALLEN'S FOOT-EASE

The Antiseptic Powder to shake into the shoes, because it takes the friction from the shoe, freshens the feet and makes walking a delight.

Shake Allen's Foot-Ease into your shoes before going on the links and notice the difference in your comfort, which often affects your score.

The Government supplied 1,500,000 lbs. of Powder for the Feet to the troops during the war. In a pinch, use Allen's Foot-Ease. At dealers everywhere.

Country Club Notes

Miss Elizabeth Gordon, winner of the Woman's St. Valentine's tournament, has returned to her home in Providence but will be in Pinehurst again for the North and South.

Mr. and Mrs. Daniel Guggenheim of Hempstead, Long Island, are playing regularly on the links. Mrs. Guggenheim and Lionel Callaway defeated Mr. Guggenheim and Clarence Callaway, 2 up, in a recent four-ball match based on aggregate scores for each hole. Mrs. Guggenheim holed out from 25 yards off the green at the second hole on the Number 2 course. Chris Callaway, father of Lionel and Clarence, was Mr. Guggenheim's private golf instructor last summer.

Mrs. R. H. Barlow of Philadelphia, one of the strongest of the women golfers in the United States, has returned to Pinehurst for the season. Mrs. Barlow has not participated in competitive golf for some time, but will undoubtedly regain her former high rank without difficulty.

John J. Boland of Buffalo, a member of the firm of Cornelius & Boland Co., owners of shipping interests on the Great Lakes, was an arrival during the week and enjoys his daily rounds over the links.

The team match between Florida and Pinehurst golfers has created great enthusiasm in Florida where the strongest players will be mustered for the Winter resort championship. This event will be held at Pinehurst as a preliminary to the North and South amateur championship.

Team matches are popular as curtain raisers for important championships. Last season the International team match opened the British amateur championship, and the East, West and Pacific Northwest match opened the United States amateur. So Pinehurst is keeping pace with its reputation by having a Florida vs. Pinehurst match as an opener for the North and South.

The match will strengthen the field in the North and South, making an added attraction for the best of the Florida golfers. It will be a strong field if all the expected players start. There will be Willie Hunter, British amateur champion, Jesse Guilford, United States amateur champion, and many other stars.

Hardly a day passes but what we hear additional names of professionals who will be here for the North and South open. The latest one to enter, and a strong one too, is Willie Ogg, professional at the Worcester Country Club. Ogg won the Shawnee open last year from a very fast field.

F. K. Robeson of Rochester, New York, son of I. S. Robeson, will play in the North and South amateur this year. "Phil" won the medal and the championship in this event in 1915, against such stars as Francis Ouimet, Jesse Guilford and W. J. Travis. In 1918 his father won the event. This is a family record for such an important tournament.

Warren Corkran of Baltimore, will be a starter in the North and South.

Eddie Lowery, golf writer for the Boston Traveler, will be a starter in both the North and South open and amateur. Lowery is a handicap four man in Massachusetts and always has a chance to win against any company.

Walter Howe and Bert Nicoll, Belmont Spring professional, and Harold Callaway and Joe Capello were all even in a best-ball match on the championship course. Howe had to sink a "touchy" putt on the home green to save his side, but the Pinehurst instructor came through—as usual.

A large gallery turned out Sunday afternoon to witness the amateur-professional exhibition match in which Tom Kerrigan and Tom McNamara defeated Donald Parson and A. L. Walker, Jr., 2 and 1. McNamara had the lowest individual score with 73. The professionals best ball was 70, one stroke lower than the amateurs. Kerrigan made the match safe when he holed an eagle three at the fourteenth, giving his side a three-hole lead with but four to be played.

Kerrigan finished fourth in the British open, which is the best that was ever obtained by a home-bred from this side.

Bert Nicoll, Belmont Spring professional, played a fine 69 on the championship course. His card was:
554 443 533—36
444 343 434—33—69

Willie Wilson had a 76 on the number three course and is firmly convinced that he has recovered his lost drive.

A coming match that will create great interest will find Harold Callaway and Joe Capello against Donald Parson and A. L. Walker, Jr.

Chris Dunphy wires from Palm Beach that he has been elected to captain the Florida golf team which will meet Pinehurst in a match during the North and South championship.
