

ANNUAL POLO TOURNAMENT MARCH 30 to APRIL 15

The Sandhills Polo Club will stage its second annual spring tournament at Pinehurst on March 30 to April 15.

The tournament will bring together the best teams playing on the southern circuit. The playing of the various events will be announced from day to day, including Sunday.

The program follows:

Novices' Event. Four individual trophies. Open to teams of four whose aggregate handicap does not exceed four goals. Highest individual handicap allowed to be two goals. Not more than one player with two goals handicap allowed on each side.

Sandhills Event. Four individual trophies. Open to teams of four whose aggregate handicap does not exceed sixteen goals.

Southern Circuit Cup. Presented by Polo Association. Open to teams of four.

The Club furnishes free stabling, and will make reservations at the hotels if given sufficient notice.

All events to be played under Polo Association handicaps.

The team engaged in a fast practice game on Sunday last, in which the Blues defeated the Whites, 6 goals to 2. Unusually fine weather prevailed and a large crowd turned out to witness the match. Captain Bryan, Messrs Lydig Hoyte and John A. Tuckerman scored two goals each for the Blues, while Captain Ripley and Fred Haserick registered one goal each for the Whites.

The line-up was:

Never at Pinehurst

When you read about burglars breaking into a village bank and getting away with money and the contents of the safe deposit boxes you never will read of it happening at Pinehurst.

The burglar who breaks into the vaults of the

BANK OF PINEHURST

will be welcome to anything he gets his fingers on.

Possibly there are stronger vaults, but you may be sure such vaults will not be opened by burglars between bedtime and sunrise.

Put your valuables in the deposit vaults at Pinehurst and you will sleep in peace at night.

All the facilities you expect of a modern bank any place are at your command at

THE BANK OF PINEHURST Pinehurst, N. C.
