A LARGE CROWD AT . . . JOCKEY CLUB'S RACES

An unusually large crowd turned out on Saturday last to witness the running of the Jockey Club's weekly races, the feature of which from a monetary standpoint was the annual March Harness race, styled the Class A. trot, and was won in successive heats by J. McKinnon's Margarite, driven by Smith. M. Sebrée's Binland, driven by the owner, finished second, and C. R. Clarke's Lee McKerron won the short end of the purse.

Silk Hose, owned by J. C. Thomas and driven by Sebrée, had clear sailing in the Class B. pace and won both heats of that event from Dupanville and Baby Ruth.

The five and half furlong selling race, the winner of which was to be sold at auction, resulted in a victory for Mrs. Gillam Brown's Lida of Earl, and this horse was sold to Harry East.

A. L. Stevens' Troben, ridden by Burns, outfooted the field in the six furlong dash, defeating Mrs. L. F. F. Warner's True as Steel and C. L. Whiting's Yankee My Grain, which finished in the order named.

Wasseon, running in the colors of Henry B. Swoope and ridden by Wells, equalled the track record for five and a half furlongs when he won that event in 1.08 2-5, and this combination then made it a double by winning the steeplechase with Kate Glenn, who led all the way.

Among the visitors at the track recently were Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Kane of Hackensack, N. J., who were making an extended visit at the Carolina. Mr. Kane is the owner of the celebrated Good Times stable of Goshen, N. Y., and bears the distinction of being the amateur champion driver in America. It was only last summer that he won the Governor's cup at Syracuse with Emma Harvester, 2:04 1-4, a horse for which he paid $20,000. Other celebrities in his stable, which includes some of the best horses on the Grand circuit, are Brusiloff, for which he paid $30,000; John Henry, with a record of 2:01 1-4, and Suavity, the champion two-year-old trotter of last year. This last named horse is the property of Mrs. Kane, and of which she is justly proud. During their visit here Mr. Kane took part in the races, winning several events for local owners, and on one occasion he and Mrs. Kane drove two yearling pacers in a match race in which Mrs. Kane defeated her illustrious husband. It is likely that Mr. Kane will send down some of his own horses next season, in which event Pinehurst race-goers will witness some racing of the highest order.

BUILDING SECTION OPENED

flowed, and made a hit in many new fields. Pinehurst has stood the test when other places have failed to hold their rating. That is why I see that the locations north of the Carolina, in that new unit, will be taken more quickly than any other section ever opened any place in the Sandhills.
