MORE REAL ESTATE SOLD

Mr. H. B. Emery, announces that during the week past he has sold building lots in the new lot plan recently opened up north of the Carolina, to Messrs. Thomas Veno and George W. Scott, who will begin to build houses on each.

It is only three weeks since this new section was opened for the sale of lots, and it was predicted at the time that it would be but a brief period until the first houses would be built. Mr. Veno and Mr. Scott are old settlers in Pinehurst and they recognized a good prospect when it was available.

A. S. Newcomb & Company report the following recent sales:

Mr. and Mrs. E. L. Merrow have sold their property to Mr. J. I. O'Brien, who buys real estate, personal property, stocks, and the whole "shooting match." Mr. O'Brien has been an all-year resident of Pinehurst for many years. He will make extensive changes and conduct a drug store business himself, renting the rest of the building, which will probably be subdivided into three parts. He will also rent rooms upstairs. The price paid was not far from $70,000.

H. A. Hathaway, of Montreal, Canada, bought a lot opposite Harold Porter's two years ago, intending to build there, but last week he sold this lot and bought another from S. E. Hopkins at the corner of Shaw road and Beulah Hill road, opposite the new residence of Dr. Marr. This lot was sold to John Small of Toronto, Canada, in 1915 for $1,200. Mr. Small sold it to Mr. Hopkins in 1919 for $2,500 and now Mr. Hathaway buys it for $4,500.

J. S. Weller sold his lot adjoining the one on which Mrs. Keating's house stands to C. R. Anderson. Mr. Weller expects to buy another to build upon.

Mr. Anderson bought the lot adjoining the Mistletoe property, owned by Mr. MacNab. Mr. Anderson sold this to the Pinehurst Construction Company two years ago and now buys the Weller lot to build on.

Jas. T. Craig bought the house formerly owned by John Maples on the Dundee (Carthage) road and will make repairs and improvements and occupy it himself.

NEW BUILDINGS FOR KNOLLWOOD

At Knollwood there will be considerable building this summer. Mr. L. C. Fuller has plans in the hands of contractors for a beautiful house on his lot at the corner of Midlands road and the Crest road. Rumored the house will cost $15,000.

Mrs. Annie Markey, of New York, will build on her lot opposite Judge Way's and Eugene Byrnes will build on the lot next to Mr. Fuller's on Midland road.

RAFFLE NETS $51.00 FOR COMMUNITY HOUSE

The raffle of a Japanese dressing sack by Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Barr netted $51.00, which Mr. and Mrs. Barr generously turned over to the Women's committee of the Community House to apply on the debt standing against that association.
