HAROLD WEBER WINS MID-APRIL TOURNAMENT

F. T. Keating, Runner-up

Harold Weber of the Inverness Club of Toledo, won chief honors and the President's trophy at the end of the finals in the annual Mid-April golf tournament, which came to a close on Saturday last, by defeating Frank T. Keating, Pinehurst, 4 up and 3 to play.

Weber reached the final match after some brilliant golf in match play, in which he defeated Arthur Yates, winner of the qualifying medal in the North and South championship; Ned Beall, a former North and South champion, and A. Lucien Walker, former intercollegiate champion and winner of several tournaments at Pinehurst this season.

Keating, the runner-up, played well during the tournament until the final round. He worked wonders with his putter during the early matches, running his ball up from far distances and sinking them with precision. He defeated Frank C. Newton, captain of the Massachusetts state team, 6 and 5, in the semi-finals.

One of the best matches of the tournament and one of the best played at Pinehurst this season was the semi-final round between Weber and Lucien Walker. Walker carried the ultimate winner to the nineteenth hole, but lost a tough match after scoring a medal round of 73.

Walker played a remarkable out, being but 33 strokes to the turn and gaining a three-hole lead over Weber. On the last nine holes Walker cut too far under two mashie niblick shots which cost him the hole each time; was off the line with two tee shots and in a trap at the short seventeenth, losing all five holes. He won two holes coming in so that the match was level at the eighteenth.

Both drove in the rough at the left off the nineteenth tee. Weber was away and put a mashie shot just beyond the green. Walker was forty yards short of the sand on his second and his third ran to the far edge of the green. Weber appeared to have an easy four but he made it quite difficult when he failed to hit his third shot hard enough and left himself an eight-foot putt. Walker made a good effort to hole from the edge for a four but missed, and Weber then holed out for a win.

Walker had seven 4's, a 3 and a 2 going out. The 2 was at the ninth where he played a fine shot to within a foot of the pin.

Mrs. JESSUP REGAINS TITLE IN TENNIS CHAMPIONSHIP

A Tie in Men's Event

In the course of the annual North and South Tennis Tournament which took up the week of April 10 to 15, Mrs. Marion Zinderstein Jessup of Wilmington, Del., regained her championship singles title when she defeated Miss Martha Bayard of Short Hills, N. J., by a score of 6-1, 6-1, in the final round, but the men's singles title remains to be settled.

S. Howard Voshell of Brooklyn, former national indoor champion, and G. Carlton Shafer of Philadelphia, former holder of the national indoor doubles title, who were the general favorites for the championship finals, fought their way to the final round on Saturday last, and after indulging in a struggle that lasted more than four hours and long after the shadows of evening had fallen the match was called on account of darkness, all even. As the participants were scheduled to play in a tournament at White Sulphur Springs this week it was necessary for them to leave Pinehurst that night and the match will be replayed at that resort this week.

The final round between Voshell and Shafer was one of the greatest tennis duels ever played on the local courts. When they were forced to leave the courts on account of darkness the score stood two sets each and at nine games all in the fifth set. Shafer won the first two sets at 6-2, 8-6, and Voshell then pulled up on even terms by winning the next two sets at 6-4, 6-3.

It was evident soon after the start of the match that Voshell was going to have his hands full. His ground strokes were weaker than usual, and when his service began to falter and go wrong it left him without a real forcing shot behind which he could go in to the net position for the volley.

Shafer was in particularly good form in the early stages, placing his main reliance in placing, without sacrificing accuracy for the sake of more speed. Time after time he caught Voshell out of position by shooting his returns of service down the side lines, and in the exchanges from deep court, the Philadelphian almost always came off with the honors.

In the third set, however, Voshell, after losing the first two sets, gathered all his forces, knowing it must be then or never with him, and started to speed up in his stroking and his footwork. He fought his way through to a winning 6-4 and
