

The Jockey Club Races

THE Sand Hill Pace, feature of the Jockey Club races on Wednesday last, was won by Love Berry, owned by A. W. Hodges, of Benson, N. C., and driven by Moore. This made the ninth straight victory in as many starts for this good pacer. The Judge, owned and driven by W. H. Cane, of Hackensack, N. J., finished second in both heats of this event, and Frank Thomas drove Dr. Starter into third place.

An extra heat was necessary to decide the winner in the Country Club Trot after Baby Ruth, owned by John McKinnon, of Laurinburg, N. C., and driven by Hawkins, and Let Fly, owned and driven by Cane, each won one of the first two heats. Let Fly won the deciding heat and the race.

The running track was muddy from the showers during the night and the mud larks had their inning. Uncle Sand, entered by N. S. Hurd and ridden by Snyder, outdistanced his field in the five and half furlong race, and St. Jude, the recent acquisition of Miss Helen Waring, displayed a sparkling performance in winning the seven furlong event in 1:31 over the muddy track.

Kate Glenn, entered by the Red Gables Stable, and ridden by Norman Smith, scored her sixth victory of the present season in the steeplechase event, defeating Misfit and Ray-O-Light. The latter made a bad landing at the eighth jump and lost his rider.

HERE'S your opportunity to own a Southern home artistic enough to suit the most fastidious, together with a peach orchard large enough to make a good business investment.

FIRLEIGH FARMS

An ideal country home and peach orchard for sale.

The desire to own an up-to-date country house has, in many instances, been offset by the high upkeep cost of such a place. Firleigh Farms has to offer, in addition to a beautiful Dutch Colonial twelve-room country home with all modern appointments, 150 acres bearing peaches.

Firleigh Farms' home place, located one mile north of Southern Pines and Weymouth Heights, is the site of Firleigh House, and has several tenant dwellings and barns, 150 acres orchard and pasture land, 30 of which are set in peaches. This place is offered for $50,000.00.

The main Firleigh orchard is located on the Southern Pines—Pinehurst Boulevard—near the Mid-Pines Country Club, and contains 110 acres seven-year-old trees, and 100 acres undeveloped land. Price, $70,000.00.

Firleigh House is offered for sale or for rent. Rent for season, $1,500.00.
