A Week of Golf

Mrs. Barlow, in the face of the weather conditions, played one of the best golf games of her career. Mrs. Barlow started off 4-4-5-4, on the first four holes of No. 1 course here and was three up, despite the fact that Mrs. Chapman had a run of five straight fives. Mrs. Barlow took a 6 on the par-3 seventh hole but turned the first nine holes of the course in 42, nevertheless. Mrs. Chapman had a 43. It was awful snappy golf. Par golf on the last three holes of the first nine would have given Mrs. Barlow a 37 to the turn. Mrs. Barlow holed out at every flag and came home in 44 strokes for a gross of 86. She won the match, 4 and 2. She had won both the medal and final round of a snappy golf tourney.

This, gentle golfers, is one of the things that makes it well worth while to live to be over 60 years old, n'cest pas?

Summaries of the final rounds follow:
