The Clockmender Wins Swigert Cup

THE annual Swigert Cup race, feature of the races at Pinehurst this week and an annual classic on the Jockey Club's schedule, was won by The Clockmender, owned by C. F. Place, of Baltimore, and ridden by Hillcoat. Uncle Sand, entered by Nat. S. Hurd and ridden by Snyder was second, and Miss Helen Waring's entry, St. Jude with Wright up, came in third. This event was named in honor of the late Colonel Robert A. Swigert, of Lexington, Ky., founder of the Pinehurst Jockey Club, and was run over the mile journey. In addition to the monetary value of the race a handsome silver cup was presented to the winning owner.

THE CLOCKMENDER

Winner of the Swigert Cup Race. Jockey Arthur Hillcoat up, receiving the cup for the owner, C. F. Place.

The afternoon's program included, in addition to the Cup race, three harness events, a steeplechase and another dash over the flat, and the large crowd was jubilant over the fact that every favorite won. The unbeaten and apparently unbeatable LoveBerry, entered by A. W. Hodges, of Benson, N. C., and driven by Moore, romped away with its twelfth straight victory at this course, and Let Fly and Norman Dillon, the entries of W. H. Cane, accounted for the "What to Do" trot and the Combination harness races, respectively, in successive heats.

Blue Jay, entered by the Dublin Inn Stables and ridden by Rice, was first to catch the Judge's eye in the five and half furlong flat race, defeating Joe Milliner, entered by Miss Waring, and Anvil, owned and ridden by Malcolm Miles.

After Nottingham and Hindoo were scratched from the steeplechase race, this event resulted in a hollow victory for the Red Gables Stable's Kate Glenn, which merely had to breeze along to stall off the efforts of Miss Fit, the only other starter. This made the eighth victory in as many starts for this superb timber-topper.
