Whether You Play Golf or Not

you know that a golf-playing community is a good community to live in.

Knollwood Village

Is the Solar Plexus of Golf

☐ One of the best courses in the world at Mid-Pines. Four of the best at Pinehurst, about two miles away as the crow flies. Another one at Southern Pines, a mile and a half distant by aeroplane. Others in project all around.

If you don't play golf you appreciate the kind of folks that will live here where golf is a fascinating sport carried to its highest development. Golf players make mighty good neighbors and friends. Besides that, Knollwood Village, after a little more landscape work is completed, is going to be easy to look at.

Real estate is moving rather actively again. Better arrange for a building location. See
