

The Golf Pro's Own Irons

The most efficient irons for satisfying play yet offered the golfing public.

Just as the medical man is physician to your physical well-being, so logically, should the golf Professional be your practitioner, adviser and friend, for the ills that beset you in your game. His knowledge of Clubs, Balls, Ground Conditions and all those essentials which stamp the finished and experienced player, render him an invaluable aid — not only to the beginner, but to the man or woman player with a genuine interest in attaining golf proficiency.

This suggestion, in brief, is put forth to the Amateur players of the country by members of the Professional Golfers Association of America

an association composed of men of the highest standing in their field — as every golfer knows — whose word and advice can be depended upon.
